I know you have never been good at putting your feelings, and your emotions into words.
But every once in a while in a while, I do need to hear certain words.
If you love me, I need you to tell me.
If you want me, I need you to tell me.

I understand that you have been hurt in the past.
But I wish you wouldn't keep living in the past.
I wish there was a way, I could help you open up to me.
And learn that you can lean on me.

I love you more than I can put into words.
But I do my best to try and express my feelings with words.
Every now and than, It wouldn't hurt to hear you voice your feelings for me.
It would be nice to know, truly how you feel about me, and for me.

If you want to hold me at night, and cuddle close to me, I need you to tell me.
If you want to push me up against a wall, and take me right than and there I need you to tell me.
If you just want to look into my eyes, and tell me how you feel about me, I need you to do that.
If you just want to take me out for a night out on the town, and get to know each other better, I need you to do that!

I love you more than you could possibly know.
I wish I just knew how you felt about me, you know?
I need you to open up to me, and tell me how you feel.
I need you to trust, that I won't hurt you, so you can tell me how you feel.

You are my love, you are my light, you are my everything.
I just hope that somewhere in your heart, that I am something.
If you continue to not tell me how you feel, then it's going to leave me to thinking
So please don't leave me to sit here wondering and thinking.

If you love me, tell me
If you want me, tell me
If you need me, tell me.
If you desire me, tell me.
