Fucked by well hung cleaner on holiday

http://www.lushstories.com/stories/interracial/black-guy-holiday-fuck.aspx

Deciding we needed a holiday, my partner and I booked up to take a trip to Jamaica. The resort looked amazing, 5 star and total luxury.

When the time came we both couldn't wait. After a long journey we eventually arrived at the resort. It was every bit as good as the brochure said it would be, and our suite was beautiful.

Our first few days were spent relaxing between the pool and private beach enjoying the sunshine and cocktails. I took great pleasure in stripping out of my bikini top to sunbathe on the beach, pretending not to notice the looks I was getting from guys and girls as they checked out my large breasts.

Of course because of the heat my partner had to put plenty of sun cream on for me and I'm sure he was the envy of several guys as they discreetly watched him massage the cream into my back and my tits, paying special attention to my nipples, which, despite the heat, seemed to be constantly stiff.

Maybe it was something to do with the tiny bikini bottoms that I would wear that would "accidentally" end up at one side so that my moist pussy lips were exposed to the strangers on the beach.

I noticed that one of the staff members from the hotel, Romey, I later learned his name was, always seemed to be hanging around whenever I went topless pretending to be busy with some cleaning or something like that nearby and he was always checking me out!

Romey was in his early 20s about 5 foot 9 and your typical Jamaican guy. I know the stereotype of black guys having huge cocks is not always true but from the good sized bulge in his uniform shorts I could see he was well hung.

My partner had noticed him checking me out and started teasing me about it, telling me I should put the poor boy out of his misery and give him more than just a flash of my large tits or pussy!

One day towards the end of our holiday I saw my opportunity. Along the beach there were shower blocks and changing areas so you could freshen up and wash the sand and salt water off before you went back up to the hotel.

Romey would work his way along the blocks cleaning them a few times a day. I watched as he put the sign up outside the block nearest to me advising that “Cleaning was in progress” before going inside.

I put my bikini top on and walked over to the block. I walked inside and could hear Romey whistling to himself as he cleaned the large shower cubical at the far end of the block. On hearing me walk in he stopped what he was doing and turned round.

He looked me up and down before managing to say,

“Sorry, I’m just cleaning, I wont be long,”

“Don’t worry Romey,”I replied.

“I don’t mind if you want to hang around.”

With that I untied my bikini top letting it fall to the floor and exposing my large tits, my nipples were rock hard in the cool shower block.

I walked towards him, his eyes fixed on my big tits and stiff nipples and slowly undid the ties at each side of my thong bikini bottoms letting them drop to the floor as well.

There I was, standing naked in front of him, he looked down following the thin strip of my neatly shaven pubic area down to my swollen clit and long pink pussy lips.

I didn’t waste any time, I started to kiss Romey passionately and within seconds his hands were all over me. I could feel his big cock harden instantly as it pressed against my naked body through the fabric of his shorts.

I undid his shirt and pulled it off exposing his toned black chest before undoing the button on his shorts and pulling down the zip. In one movement I pulled his shorts and underwear to the floor and his rigid black cock sprang free.

It was a good nine inches long and as thick as my wrist. I started to wank him off, rolling his foreskin back and forth over his bulging helmet to milk the pre cum from his hard dick.

As the precum began to seep from his helmet I took him in my mouth and sucked him off playing with his heavy balls as I fitted as much of him in my mouth as I could.

When I felt his balls begin to tighten I knew he was close to cumming so I stood up and bent over one of the benches in the changing area.

Romey ran his throbbing cock up and down my slit coating himself in my warm juices which were running from my pussy. He parted my swollen pink lips and eased his thick member into my tight warm hole.

Pain from his thick black cock soon gave way to pleasure as he thrust himself deeper and deeper inside me. Soon he had his full length inside me and began to withdraw and drive himself deep into my hole fucking me hard and fast.

He moaned as he fucked me with everything he had, running a finger down my ass before sliding a digit deep into my tight ass hole. I screamed as an orgasm tore through me tightening my pussy round his cock and my ass round his fingers.

He pulled out of me and made me lick my juices from his glistening cock before laying me back on the bench. He spread my legs and once again thrust himself inside me tugging on my stiff nipples and rubbing my big clit as he fucked me hard and fast.

His pace quickened and I knew he was about to cum.

“Where?”

He moaned.

I was in ecstasy as his huge cock filled my pussy,

“Anywhere.”

I managed to reply, quickening his pace again I felt his cock begin to throb and he groaned as he began to pump his hot spunk deep inside my well fucked pussy filling me up with it causing me to shudder as another massive orgasm tore through me.

He eventually stopped fucking me and slowly withdrew his now soft cock from my well fucked hole. As he pulled it out I felt his thick spunk begin to run out of me and down my ass pooling on the bench under me.

I stood up and more spunk began to run down my legs. Romey looked very pleased with himself.

We gathered up our clothes, I put my skimpy bikini bottoms on which barely covered my pussy now that my lips were so swollen from the fucking I had just been given. I put on my top and hurried off to tell my partner what had just happened, I knew it would drive him wild and we would be back in our hotel suite in no time, that however, is another story!!
