I've got something to share with you.. I have carried this feeling inside me for all my years

This emotion that covers all my life fields
Is so called pain

That pain is all over me
Sometimes it feels like I don't want to be left without

This frequent emotion is stuck with me
It seems like it's part of my being

It should be emotion that comes and goes
It should really be just an a emotion that leaves when it is not needed anymore

My pain is part of me
She stays with me, takes care of me, so I won't be able to enjoy my life too much

And I take care of my pain as well
I've only surrounded myself with things that pain can feed on
As you can see this emotion that causes my tears is friend of mine

She helps me to survive my tragedies
She knows that I am used to her presence and she reminds me she is there with constant amount of her
She is very aware that I wouldn't be able to handle surprising effect of her anymore

And she knows it if she would leave me
I will begin to explore joy again

And with joy or any other gift of life
The pain will storm in my life again

That is why she never leaves my side and I can feel her taking comfort in me all the time we all know by now that I would not survive if she left

I am glad you got to meet my friend.. this is She... and She is my pain....
