In appreciation of older women

I was 20 years old when I experienced my first sexual encounter with an older woman. Unfortunately, I was totally intoxicated and allI remember isthat the lady was petite with dark hair, and she loved being on top. After that I never met up with her again, but my sexual appetite for mature women was a constant urge.

At the age of 28, I became separated and eventually divorced. I started clubbing frequently and meeting many different women. I still felt drawn to older women, so I decided it was time to cure my urges. I met a lady who was 40 and extremely attractive. Her hair was a light brown with a beautiful hint of red running through it, her eyes were a blue-gray, and she had the cutest nose that matched her beauty. To top it all off, she was large-breasted and curvy...my kind of woman.

We hit it off right away that night, but she ended up overindulging in drinks and went home slightly intoxicated. We had managed to exchange numbers during the early evening, and to my surprise she contacted me the next day. She was embarrassed by her actions the prior night and asked me for a second chance. I graciouslyaccepted her invitation and prepared myself for the evening.

We met at the club again, but this time she was dressed to attract my attention in a sexual manner. Her large breasts were blossoming from her white blouse, which she had paired with a short turquoise skirt that showed a good amount of leg. I must say I had a hard time speaking face to face with her that evening due to her comely exposure. Aftera few drinks and good conversation, we went out to the dance floor and closed the club.

As weexited the club she invited me toher place for a nightcap; I willingly accepted. We arrived at her place and she immediately took my hand, guiding me to her bedroom. Her bedroom was neat and tidy, with a queen size water bed located in the center of the room. Without hesitation she brought her body close to me and gently slid her hand down into my groin area. Her hand was warm and her soft touch excited me immediately. She then unzipped my pants to expose my now rock solid erection and inserted my cock into her mouth. She began thrusting and moaning in pleasure as she slowlyswallowed my cock as deeply as possible. To my surprise she stopped, looked up at me, and asked if I would like her to remove her teeth to enjoy even more extreme pleasure.

Although taken aback, I managed to reply, "OK..." She quickly disappeared and returnned to continue sucking my cock. She was now able to deep throat my hard nine-inch cock, and the sensation was like nothing I can explain. "Oh my God, this is fantastic!" I told her.

We moved to the bed and were now are completely undressed. Igazed at hernaked body in front of me — this lady was packaged nicely. Her large breasts were natural and firm with surprisingly small pink nipples for the size of her breasts. I found it to be a very unique turn on. I gazed down to her unshaven pussy and she had beautiful flaps protruding past her labia. I immediately had to go down and lick her pussy. She was so clean and wet, and it was a great pleasure to suck on her thick clitoris. She was super horny and started begging to be fucked.

I slipped my large hard cock into her pussy with ease; she was wet and hot. Before too long she wanted to change position. We switched to her on top, presenting me with the chance to fondle and suck her large breasts. She was fucking and moaning with extreme pleasure, and as soon as I started sucking her nipples she went crazy. She began a rotating motion on my cock that created such a pulse of pleasure to me that all I could do was lay back and enjoy the ride.

I asked her to turn around so we could do a little 69 action, since her clitoris is large and very tasty and she is fantastic at sucking cock. This had already been one of greatest sexual experiences to that point of time in life, and I couldn't imagine it getting even more intense.

She decided she wanted it doggy style, so we switched positions again. She was rotating and hammering back on me like there was no tomorrow; I was moaning in pleasure and she was loving it. I had never been with a woman who fucked like her, or even got into as much as she did. I should have been popping, but I just couldn't — I didn't want it to end.

She then requested that I fuck her anally.

"What?!" I replied.

"Fuck me up the ass, please; I want to feel your large cock up my ass!"

This brought out another meek "OK" from me.

I had never heard a woman ask for this before, and I was unsure what to do. I asked her if we need a lube and she said she didn't need lube, but just needed to ease on to me. Reluctantly, I positioned my cock at her anal area, and was amazed that it was already open like a vagina. The head of my cock easily slipped into position and she began pressing back on my cock, which was liberally wet from her pussy. This was a new and intense experience for me. The snugness of her ass was like being inside a tight pussy. I could not believe how good it felt.

She was moaning and breathing heavily, throwing herself into multiple orgasms. What an experience! I was into this with total surprise and pleasure. I continued fucking her in the ass like a dog in heat, and still I could not cum. I found this slightly embarrassing, but in the same sense it was great.

We finally collapsed from total exhaustion, after five hours of hot and furious no-holds (and no holes) barred sex. I was unable to cum that night, butI spent the next 14 years having sexual encounters with her until cancer took her.

She taught me how to appreciate life and how to appreciatewomen in general. I have written this story in memory of her and thank you for reading.
