A visit to a Sex Store leads to an encounter. Or two.....

The street that I was walking on happened to go right by some of the sex shops and strip joints, both of which kind of drew my attention. I decided that I would venture into one of the shops since I had never been in one before.

There was aisle after aisle of videos and magazines with various intriguing covers. Some had scanitly clad women on the cover and some had both men and women on the cover. Then there was a section of magazines and videos with only men on the covers. I had not seen anything like this.

I kind of stood there and stared. I must have been looking for quite some time when I heard a man's voice ask, "Do you like what you see?"

Just hearing the voice kind of startled me, then I felt embarassed having been caught looking at these kinds of magazines. I kind of mumbled something and moved on to the next aisle.

I could sense that this man was watching me as I moved around in the store. I felt a little odd about this, but seeing all of the blatant sexual products kept me curious for more.

At the back of the store there was a doorway with no door on it and the sign above said "Private Video Boothes". I slowly walked through this doorway to check this out.

I stepped into one of the boothes and looked at the menu of videos that were offered. Before I could make a selection, the man that spoke to me in the store stepped in and asked if I would mind watching a video with him if he paid.

I did not know what to say and just stood there. He put some coins into the slot and pushed a button for his choice. The screen lit up and the video began.

On the screen there were men and women in a large room with no furniture. They all started groping each other and soon the clothes began to be removed and it was not long before they were all naked.

I was watching closely as a couple of the women started making out with each other. They were feeling each other's tits and then started to finger each other. They slowly dropped down to the floor got into the 69 position.

As I watched this, I had forgotten about the man that was in the room with me. I was so focused on the women on the screen and I knew I was getting turned on. Then, without even thinking, I reached down to sort of adjust myself as my hard-on was growing.

When I looked back up to the screen, I noticed that some of the men had paired off with each other and one man was down on his knees licking and sucking the other man's hard cock. Just then, I felt a hand on my crotch and it startled me.

The man had moved close to me and when he started to fondle my crotch he said that he would do that for me if I wanted. Once again, I was at a loss for words. I just stood there not saying anything and not moving.

He obviously took that as a yes as he started to unzip my pants. As he did this he spoke again saying, "Just enjoy the show and don't mind me." I looked back at the screen and the two women I had been watching had joined the two men.

They were intertwined with hands all over each other and they were licking and kissing each other. As I watched, I realized that the man had his hand inside my pants and was rubbing my cock through my underwear.

I was not sure what I should do. My first thought was to run, yet, I was so turned on by everything that I did not move. I was looking at the screen, then back down at the man now on his knees in front of me, then back up at the screen.

Next I realized that he had completely undone my pants and was pulling them slowly down. I did not stop him. He then slid my shorts down and there I stood, naked below the waist and a complete stranger, a complete stranger that was a man, was fondling me.

My cock seemed to grow bigger and bigger. It felt like it was going to split at the seems, so to speak. I had never had this sensation before. I continued to watch the video as the two men had now laid on the floor in the 69 position and had each other's cocks in their mouths.

The women were fingering themselves and playing with each other's tits. Both couples seemed to be in their own little world as they explored each other's bodies. I looked back down when I felt a new sensation.

The man now had my rock hard cock in his mouth, slowly moving up and down. My girlfriend had not even given me a blowjob before, so this was a brand new feeling and I could not believe how much I was enjoying it.

He would suck for a while, then lick up and down my shaft, then suck on my balls, then back to sucking again. While he sucked, he was playing with my balls with one hand and jerking his own cock with his other. I had not even noticed that he had completely undressed himself.

I found it harder and harder to watch any of the video with what he was doing to me. I would watch my cock disappear into his mouth, then back out again. I also could not help myself and watched him jacking his cock. He was different from me in that he was uncut, something I had never seen.

I watched as the head of his cock would slide in and out of the hood and I could see the pre-cum glisten in the light from the video screen. I was moving my hips back and forth as he continued to suck me.

He was moaning as he sucked and I knew that I was getting close. I did not know what to do, just let him keep going or let him know I was going to cum. Before I could decide, I felt him insert a finger into my ass and I immediately shot into his mouth.

It felt like I had cum a gallon as I kept shooting and shooting and he kept sucking and sucking. Then his cock started shooting all over his hand and the floor. I had never seen a man come (other than myself of course!) and so I watched his cum shoot out of his dick.

My mind was racing with a variety of feelings from ecstasy to embarrassment to horror at what had just taken place. Once he was done shooting he licked me clean and he picked up his clothes and left the room.

I just kind of stood there not knowing what to do. The video was still going and thus my attention was brought back to it. Once again I was drawn to two other men fondling each other while two more men were kissing them. This was a scene that an hour earlier I would have probably been totally grossed out by, but now it did not seem so bad.

As I continued to watch, I realized that I was getting hard again. I slowly started to stroke my cock as I continued to watch. Once again, it seemed that my cock was getting harder and larger than usual. I was focused on the activity on the screen while I kept jacking off.

Then I was startled again when I heard another voice ask if I needed any help. This time it was the older lady that had been behind the counter when I came into the store. (Older meaning around 40 since I was only 19 at the time.)

I could not believe this, I had just let some dude suck me off and now I was caught jacking off by a woman that I did not know at all. For whatever reason, I just kept strokin as I turned towards her.

She stepped into the room and as she walked towards me she removed her blouse. She had nothing underneath and her tits were astonishing. I could not get over the size of her nipples nor how hard they were. She stopped a step away from me and leaned down to remove her skirt. again, nothing underneath.

I expected her to come closer to me, but she just stood there watching me jerk off and she started to play with her tits, pinching and squeezing those long nipples. One hand dropped between her legs and she was rubbing her cunt. I could hear how juicy it was.

Without words, she just dropped down to her knees in front of me. We continued, not touching each other, only ourselves. I stepped a little closer as I was about to cum. I shot all over her face and tits. She groaned as she must have orgasmed as well.

After a minute or two, the silence was broken when she asked if I wanted to get cleaned up. She then picked up her clothes and led me to the employee washroom. She grabbed a wash cloth and proceeded to clean me, spending a great deal of time fondling my softened cock. As she did this it started to rise again.

She chuckled a little and said, "This is what I like about a young cock, ready to go again so soon." She told me that she had watched as the man had sucked my cock and she asked if she could do the same now. This time I spoke and told her she had my permission to proceed.

I did not last very long this time, nor did I shoot very much cum, but it was just as satisfying when I came in her mouth. She then asked if I had ever gone down on a girl. I told her that I had not.

She sat down on the bench and directed me to get on my knees in front of her. She told me exactly what she wanted me to do. She tasted great and I must have learned quickly because she came fairly soon. She was not a squirter, but she was definitely wet.

We cleaned each other off, got dressed and I followed her back out into the store. She asked if there was anything else that she could help me with. I thanked her and said not today and walked out of the store.

What an experience, something that I have relived many times, leading to some very intense jack off sessions and lots of cum!
