I awoken on a early Valentines day when I heard the sound of the the doorbell. I had to get up because I was an only child raised by my single mom who was in work. I usually sleep in some comfy panties without my mom knowing but only if she will be in work the next day. Anyway I put on some jeans and a t-shirt to open the door. When I opened the door I noticed a box on the ground which I took in and opened. It was a black lace baby doll with a pair of black lace panties. It was accompanied by a note which read to the most beautiful person in the world from your secret admirer.

I knew my mom was beautiful and I expected gifts to be given to her but I though I just might keep this gift since it was a secret admirer she might not know. I didn't want to steal but this was just too sexy not to wear and I couldn't wait and li also couldn't wear it and put it back so I though why not. I soon rushed up and took off my jeans, t-shirt and my panties. I then put on the lace panties and the baby doll outfit. I though I would wear this until my mom came home from work so I went onto my laptop and looked at some stories.

I then feel asleep by accident and I woke up with my mom their smiling and saying

'Yes my plan worked.'

I was surprised to hear the words with came from her mouth she expected me to put these clothes on.

'I knew you couldn't resist putting on lingerie, so I planned this hoping it will work which it did.' she said.

'But mom how did you know I wore lingerie?' I asked

'Remember when you were 14 and you had that babysitter?'

'ye'

'well I had a camera's installed to make sure you behaved, so when you turned 16 I started noticing some of my panties going missing luckily they were still installed and I used them once again to catch whoever was doing it which it turned out to be you'

'but why did you want me to know that you know?'

'Well my son you seemed to like wearing them and I was very turned on watching you wearing these panties so I bought this sent it to the house making it seem like it was a present for me and I watched the camera's until the right moment which was obviously when you fell asleep so you cannot take it of without me noticing which you done so many times'

'So you are gonna be the slutty girl I always desired and this dildo will be your first cock I know you desire'

She then came over with a strap on dildo and a bottle of lube and also a big smile on her face. She the stripped down naked and put on the strap on. She pulled me to my hands and knee's pulled the panties to my ankles and put lube on my ass. I was so cold and felt strange. The next was the head of my mom's rubber dildo entering my tight virgin ass.

She then put strong thrust into my ass which was very painful and she put and thrust and another and another which continued for a full hour which caused me a lot of pain and I found I very difficult to walk when she told me to stand up. When I stood up I walk 3 steps and fell to my hands and knees. She said oh if you refuses to walk you might as well suck my cock which I did for several minutes until the doorbell rang and my mom said 'theirs your next surprise'
