My first swinger party was a Halloween fuck fest.

This is a story about a Halloween night that was so fun I will never forget it. It was last year, a friend of mine named Brooke from high school found me on Facebook. I was so excited to see her. It's been about 15 years, and she moved away back then. She has now returned and we met up. We so rekindled on old times and had the best laughs. I was so glad she moved back. We lost touch after she got married and moved away, but is now recently divorced and back in town for good.

It was early October and Brooke told me about a swinger Halloween party she wanted to go to. I really didn't know what she meant but she told me that she and her ex husband attended one every year. She told me about all the wild sex and stuff that goes on.

I was kind of reluctant at first and said, "You're crazy," but she talked me into it. I told her, "I will go for you, but I'm not having sex!"

Brooke told me, "Don't worry, just go to have fun, you don't have to do anything."

The following Saturday we went together to pick out our costumes. I figured it was a swingers party so I wanted to dress really sexy. I like to look sexy. I found the perfect costume. It was Alice in wonderland. A very short skirt with a short top and knee high stockings. Brooke also found a cheerleader's costume she liked. It was very hot looking and very skimpy, I must admit.

It was a week later and it was the night of the party. I put on my costume. My knee highs looked hot as they went just below my upper thighs. My skirt just barely covered my ass, and I put on a red thong. I was wearing high heels and I put my hair in braided pigtails. I decided not to wear a bra so my nipples would poke through the top, rock hard all night. I looked so fucking hot, I was turning myself on.

Brooke showed up in her cheerleader outfit to pick me up. Wow, I was amazed. She looked so good, I wanted her at that moment! She wore sexy cheerleader part the perfectly. I grabbed my stuff and we left to the party. We arrived at the party around 10pm. I must admit I was really nervous, I mean, this is a swinger party. My first time being at one. I have only read about them.

We walked up to the door and opened it. We walked in. The music was loud. Everyone was dressed up in costumes and partying. It seemed like fun now. We both went and got a drink at the bar to loosen up. We both had a few shots then ordered vodka/tonics to walk around with. This was at a house. It was a pretty big sized house. I'd say there was around 80 people there. People were dancing in the living room and partying at the tables.

Brooke and I mingled a bit and we were talking to this couple for a bit. They invited Brooke back to a bedroom for some fun. She asked if I minded since I wasn't wanting any part of this sex-capade that was going on. I said sure, go have fun. I was now left alone but I felt comfortable. It was midnight now and the party was really starting to heat up.

I started seeing everything from women giving blowjobs to guys, to people fucking on the couch. I was just walking around in amazement how this all of a sudden was turning into a fuck fest. The music was getting louder and the lights were dim and strobe lights everywhere. Everyone was in costume looking hot. I went back to the bar to order a drink. I got my drink but the bartender told me he was out of straws and there was some in the garage. I really wanted a straw, so I walked back into the garage. The garage must have been meant for partying too because the lights were off, but it had a few strobe lights going. Also a few tables were set up in there. I proceeded to walk in the garage to see if I could find the straws where the bartender told me they were. All of a sudden, the door opened and three guys walked in. They were all dressed up as zombies. I couldn't see their faces nor could I even tell you their nationality.

The three guys surrounded me. I told them I was looking for a straw and asked them if they knew where they might be. They didn't say a word. I was already aroused from seeing people fuck and I was getting even more turned on with these three guys I didn't know surrounding me. All of a sudden one of the guys behind me gently moved me forward, he then bent me over the table. I don't know why but I didn't stop him. He immediately pushed my skirt up over my ass. He pulled down my thong around my upper thighs. He got down on his knees and started licking my ass and pussy. Digging his face in it.

The other guy came up and pulled my top up over my tits. Both of them started groping them. I was getting so hot . I couldn't even see what they looked like. One of the guys pulled out his cock. He started slapping my face with it. It was so huge it must have been at least 9.5 to 10 inches. I was moaning slightly from having my pussy and ass licked. The guy licking me was doing it so good and aggressively. The guy behind me then stood up and shoved his cock in my pussy. He started fucking me hard. I was leaned up a little from the table. My tits started swaying back and forth as I was getting fucked hard. He grabbed my pigtails so I couldn't move as he was fucking me.

The other two guys were standing in front of me. They leaned over the table and I started stroking both their cocks as I was getting pumped hard. I could hear all the guys moaning as I was either getting fucked or stroking their cocks. The guy behind me all of sudden pulled out and shot a huge load all over my ass. One of the other guys came in behind me and started fucking me. He was the guy with the big cock. I was moaning so loud I couldn't believe how he was stretching my pussy. It felt so good, I never wanted him to stop. All of a sudden about six to seven more guys entered the room. I could tell I was going to be a toy for a few hours. The guy with the big tool just shot his huge load in me now. I had cum dripping down my leg.

I was now placed on my back. I had hands all over me groping my body. The table was cold and hard, I was being fucked one after another. I had so many cocks in my face. I was sucking everyone as they took turns on me. I think more guys entered because I could see so many guys in the room but I never counted. I was getting fucked hard over and over. My pussy was so filled with cum. I was starting to get drenched on my face and tits as well from sucking and jacking everyone.

This went on for a few hours. All of a sudden Brooke walked in nude.

She laughed and said, "I see someone has been enjoying themselves, may I join in?"

Brooke spread my legs as I was on the table and bent over. Brooke started getting fucked from behind. She was moaning so loud and was licking my pussy. Brooke was cleaning the cum out of me. All the guys that were there started groping her and she was getting banged, one by one. Brooke's face continued to be buried in my pussy. After about six guys later Brooke came up to me. Her mouth was covered with cum from eating it out of me. Brooke started kissing me and fucking my pussy with hers.

The guys were all excited and either ranting or were jacking watching us. We were gliding our wet pussies together so good. Our tits were pressed against each other and I so can remember her soft body against mine.

I was ready to climax and I started moaning so loud, "I'm Cumming, I'm Cumming!" till I finished.

Brooke was grinding harder against my clit now as she was ready to cum. She finally reached climax at this point.

We both laid on our back in exhaustion. The guys were not done yet, we both started getting fucked more. We didn't mind at this point. The guys were all getting off on us and we let them. Finally around 5am the party was done. Brooke and I were so fucked and cum-drenched at this point. It was time to go. We both got showered up and left the party.

It was a fun-filled Halloween night and I'm so glad I went. I learned a lot about myself that night and had the best time ever. Most of all, it was so exciting, everyone was in costume and all their faces were hidden.
