I never knew that the military life could be so good

It had been six months since I turned 18 and I entered the Army for a two year tour. They had offered me a $2000 bonus to sign up right out of high school and I took this as a career opportunity for a little country girl like me. My two months at basic training was a shock for someone that had never been away from home. I went from there to another fort for my Advanced Individual Training for the next ten weeks.

I happened to get roomed with a young black woman, Mary, 20, for this course. She too had come directly from basic training. She looked very attractive, about 5'10" with a set of breasts and a nice, round butt that demanded attention. She towered over my little 5'5" frame.

For the last four months I have been without sex and I started back on birth control pills shortly before I was transferred here. We finally had nights and weekends that we could do whatever we wanted to and I was going to make up for lost time.

On this particular Friday I was under stress. I had been given the responsibility of leading the little platoon in activities of the day to include early morning exercises and marching them to and from classes during the day.

Mary and I had just come in from the early morning physical exercises and got our showers to prepare for breakfast before classes. I was standing at the sink counter in my underwear getting ready to put on makeup when Mary came out of the bathroom naked, still drying herself from the shower. I broke down and started crying from all the stress I had already dealt with this morning.

She embraced me with her naked body kissing away my tears and calling me 'Baby Girl'. It did comfort me. I had my arms around her and I could feel her breasts pressed up high on my chest. I put my hand on one of them and caressed it as we stood there embraced. I looked down at the breast I was fondling and wishing I could do more.

"Go ahead," she said, " you can kiss and suck it."

My eyes took in what she had just said and I lowered my mouth to her breast and kissed the dark nipple before taking it into my mouth. She leaned her head back and closed her eyes while I sucked on her hard nipple. I played with her other breast with my hand and I felt my bra go slack when she unfastened it.

She turned me around and walked me backwards to the bed right behind me. I let her lie me down face up and pull my panties off. Her head went down between my legs and I felt her tongue licking and parting my slit. The eagerness at which she did it made it seem like she was hungry for sex. Her nose rubbed the little spray of black pubic hair I had on my mound.

Her tongue worked like a pro up and down my slit, over my anus and back up again and again. When she slid a finger in me stroking back and forth while she rapidly licked my clit I had my hands on her hair with my hips grinding into her motions.

I felt myself reach climax and it seemed like my vagina exploded into a million pieces as I shuddered with squirts into her mouth. I laid there for a minute taking in the contentment of the relief of being deprived of sex for months. She moved up over me kissing and sucking at my breasts before her mouth finally covered mine. I felt her tongue go in my mouth and I did the same letting mine wrap hers with passion.

It seemed the erotic kisses went on for minutes. She turned her body around in a 69 position over me and I got the first close up view of her pussy. Her shaved lips were so dark and I let my tongue lick and part them to reveal the pink inside. I licked up and down her pussy and then rimmed around her anus. I thrust my tongue in and out of her pussy while I felt her licking my slit and clit.

I had my nose right against her anus while my face was against her pussy working my tongue inside. I could hear her gasping and her breathing increased. I could feel her hot breath on my pussy but it seemed she could no longer concentrate on what she was doing. I heard her moans grow into almost a growl as she came. I could feel her vagina contracting with the spasms while my tongue was in her.

“Oh, Baby Girl,” she said, “we are going to have so much fun together. We are going to get us some soldier boys and come back here for some good sex tonight.” It sounded like a plan and I was beginning to look forward to it.

We did miss breakfast this morning, but we did get to “eat” something. She told me to rely on her today for leadership help with the platoon. I did. I let her call all the cadence for me as we marched to and from classes.

When we finally got back to the room at the end of the day I had a splitting headache. We had planned to go to the post bowling alley tonight with the intention of meeting up with some boys. We knew that this was a good place to meet someone and it would not cost us much. I had to decline though. I took something for my headache and then took a shower before lying down. I told Mary to go on without me and that she could bring her date back here if they wanted to get intimate.

Mary showered and put on her tightest jeans, a pink button up blouse and some high heeled boots. She gave me a kiss on the lips before she left and I settled down to watch some tv from bed. In a little over an hour later I was feeling fine and popped some small pizza bites in the microwave for something to eat. I settled back in the bed to rest.

Two hours later I heard the key in the door. I looked up to see Mary leading in a black guy with a bald head. He was rather handsome, trim and I could tell that he was a military guy.

Mary introduced him as Derrick to me. She told him I was the sweetest girl anyone would ever meet and had the prettiest boobs that she had ever seen.

“Mary! Don’t tell people something like that.” I shook his hand and he seemed quite nice.

She sat down on the bed beside me and kissed me on the lips. She asked me how I was feeling and I told her my headache had been gone a couple of hours.

“I wish I had known, you could have come to the bowling alley and met Bobby, his friend. We came back here to use the bed,” she said.

Derrick told her that Bobby was probably still there and he could call him and tell him to come over. Mary asked me and I said that would be okay. Derrick got him on the phone telling him a pretty girl wanted to meet him. Mary took the phone from him and told him that I was the prettiest, sweetest white girl he would ever meet. She told him I had pretty black hair and alluring green eyes. She gave him the building and room number and he said he would be right over.

I got up and went to freshen up some. I even took the opportunity to take the little squeeze bottle enema over the toilet just in case I had anal sex tonight. I came out of the bathroom in some black, lacy panties and bra.

“Man, look at that fine ass,” Derrick said. I could see him in the reflection of the mirror where I stood. He was sitting at the big wingback chair across the room with Mary sitting on his lap. He had all but one lower button on her blouse undone and his hand was inside on one of her bra cups. I could see her hand tracing his hard cock in his slacks. They were trying with all their might to hold back till

Bobby got here.

I put on some eyeliner and a little shadow along with a little makeup. I got my jeans and put them on along with a white button up blouse. Finally, I put on some sandals that displayed my red nail polish I had on my toenails.

Mary wanted to know why I was getting so dressed up, he will only want to take my clothes off. I told her it was just a fun part of the game. Derrick make the comment that I looked too super hot.

There was a knock at the door and Mary slid off Derrick's lap to answer the door. When she opened the door she invited Bobby in and told me to come over so she could introduce him. I observed him to be a rather handsome black guy just a little taller than me. His hair was cut short, face clean shaven and he was lean.

"Sgt Bobby Evans, meet Pfc Carole Young," she said.

"Wow," he said, "you look awesome, glad to meet you."

He and I sat on the side of the bed talking to each other. I had my right thigh crossed over my other leg and he sat there taking in all the information I was giving him. We talked about where we were from, our siblings, our career goals and such. I found him very nice and we hit it off pretty good. We observed Mary again sitting on Derrick's lap in the chair. He had her blouse completely unbuttoned and pulled out of her jeans. I watched as she let the blouse drop off her arms and then he unfastened her red bra. He pushed her bra cups out of the way to reveal her nice breasts standing high on her chest.

His mouth kissed and nibbled at her nipple and I watched her like she did this morning. She leaned her head back and closed her eyes like she was savoring the sucking on her breast.

Suddenly she stood, undid her jeans and pulled them off slowly as her breasts swayed and bounced with every movement. She had on red bikini panties that revealed a definite camel toe. I could see the outline of the little bit of black pubic hair she had on her mound. She laid down on her back with her head at the foot of the bed. Derrick quickly shed all of his clothes except his boxers. He partially laid on her sucking and playing with her breasts. His mouth eventually covered hers for some long erotic kisses.

Bobby began to kiss me on the neck and for a moment I caught my breath. His lips felt so soft and warm as he kissed me under my right ear. I closed my eyes and his mouth covered mine with his tongue going in my mouth. As I gave him tongue I could feel the sensation of a tingle in my groin. I felt him unbutton my blouse as he kissed me, pulling it out of my waistband. I helped him pull my blouse off. I watched him as he pulled the pullover he wore over his head and off. He revealed a nice, smooth chest and his tummy was flat and tight.

He pressed his naked torso up against me and I could feel the warmth send sensations through my body. I immediately wanted my breasts naked against him so I told him to unfasten my bra. When he did I let the bra fall away from me to reveal a pair of small C sized breasts. My areolas were a little larger than a quarter with erect nipples. I heard Bobby comment that they were perfect before he cupped them with his hands and lowered his mouth to one of them.

I let him lick and suck on them while I watched Derrick pull Mary's panties off. Then he pulled his boxers off to reveal a nice cock with big girth. I enjoyed the sucking sensations on my breast and put my hand behind Bobby's head to pull him closer. I watched Derrick as he stood there on the bed on his knees while Mary sat and sucked on his cock. It made me want cock in my mouth and I felt around on Bobby's slacks and found his erection. It felt very long.

Bobby stood up and removed his clothes. When he pulled his underwear off his cock popped out straight at me. I had never seen one like this before. It was very long and slender. The last couple of inches narrowed with a smaller head than the rest of the cock. I sat there on the bed while he moved his cock closer to my mouth. My tongue played with the tip as my hand held the base of his cock. I licked up and down his cock before making circles around the tip playfully. I pulled off my jeans and panties before dropping to my knees beside the bed and taking as much cock in my mouth as I could. I could hear Mary gasping and moaning from being eaten by Derrick while I sucked on Bobby's cock.

I squatted with my back to the bed and leaned my head back at the top edge. I guided Bobby's cock in my mouth and down my throat. I let him lean and deep throat me. I was taking all of it and I could feel his balls tapping my chin. I was loving this for the couple of minutes it lasted.

I got up on the bed and laid down on my back. Bobby got up between my legs licking and fingering my pussy. When he could only get two fingers in me he commented that I was tight. When he moved up on me I could feel the tip of his cock pressing at my opening well before his mouth covered mine. I pulled my legs back and he penetrated me several inches. I gasped as he shoved deeper and deeper.

I heard Mary moaning and I glanced that way to see Derrick's hard cock thrusting in and out of her while he held her legs back. I felt my own thrusts as I watched him pound her long and deep. My moans seemed to echo with Mary's as we both fucked at the same time. The wet, pussyfucking sounds went on for minutes with both of us girls. I heard her when she climaxed and he came within seconds in her later.

I felt myself reaching an orgasm. I felt my vagina tighten around Bobby's cock and me squirting against it. Bobby quickened his thrusts and pounded me unmercifully till he came with a rush of warm cum in me. I could feel the sensation inside of me while his cock thumped with spasms. He laid on me a minute before he pulled out of me.

I asked him if he had ever done anal and he admitted that he had not. I asked him if he wanted to try it and he said yes. I quickly jumped up and trotted over to the dresser. I opened my underwear drawer and took out a bottle of lube.

I was on my way back to the bed when I heard Mary call me. "Come here, I want to lick you, I want to lick cum."

I went over to her and got up on the bed in a 69 position over her. I let her lick my pussy wet with cum while I licked hers. I savored the cum in my mouth and I swallowed it. I felt Derrick playing with my breasts and then I felt lube being spread over and in my anus. Bobby was standing there on the floor at the end of the bed and beginning to penetrate my anus with his cock.

I felt it shove deeper and deeper till it bottomed out in me. He pulled it back and slammed it hard in me making me shriek. As Mary licked at my slit she watched the cock going in and out of my ass. This is what I wanted, I wanted to be fucked up the ass. Having Mary licking my clit was another sensation that I loved while I was being fucked. I could feel Derrick still playing with my breasts and I licked even faster at Mary's slit and clit.

I was making sounds like I never made before. I felt myself climax and shoot little squirts on Mary's face. Bobby came right after I did and all the moans were enough to set Mary off with an orgasm.

All of us flopped on the bed and laid there for a minute except for Derrick. He was ready for some more sex. He pulled me to a doggy position and I lowered my shoulder to the bed with my butt high up in the air. I felt his thick cock go in me and I knew he was not going to miss out on getting some white pussy. He fucked me for several minutes while I moaned in a steady shriek. I could feel my breasts swaying and bouncing with the thrusts. I knew Bobby and Mary was watching my butt bounce when Derrick made contact with his body each time. I felt myself begin to climax and he came at the same time.

When he moved away I laid down on my back. Mary went down on me licking the cum and moaning as she savored it. After she licked and cleaned all she wanted she moved up on me and her mouth covered mine. I could still taste the cum as her tongue went in my mouth. I felt my pussy being massaged and Mary was getting the same feeling as both men played with us.

It was a night that I will long remember but Mary and I never settled on just one man. However, we did still have chance encounters with Bobby and Derrick. I loved the anal with him. The relationship continued between Mary and me for the remaining weeks of the course.
