A short story about a granddaughter's love.

My parents knew that I visited my grandpa often. We told them I was doing chores for him around the house in return for some pocket cash because at sixteen, they knew I needed it. This wasn't exactly the truth. The truth was that my grandpa and I had been having sex most days after school.

I'm about to tell you one of my favorite stories.

As I drive to his house I become very horny. I've been thinking about this all day at school. I can't concentrate on anything but having sex with grandpa. It seems that the last few months he's the only thing on my mind. When we're away from each other I've even called him to have phone sex.

I pull into the driveway and am so excited. I grab my bag of clothes and head through the front door. Looking around for him I drop my bag by the door, take off my shoes and head to the kitchen.

"Hi Grandpa," I say. I go for the apple on the counter and have at it. "Hey pumpkin," I hear from the other room. I watch his sexy body as he walks through the door. "How was your day?" he asks me. I set down the apple and slowly creep nearer.

"I missed you," I pout.

He smiles as I put my arms around him. I press my pussy against his upper thigh and can feel his hard penis near my stomach.

"You know, I've been thinking about you all day," he growls.

"I've been thinking about you too," I assure him with a quick hand to his crotch. I start massaging the area by rubbing up and down him. He closes his eyes and starts breathing heavy. My grandpa has such a way of turning me on.

He soon pulls me into him and breathes on my neck. His hand grabs my ass while the other begins to lift my leg up his side. He pushes his bulge into me and I gasp. My body becomes more aware of him by the second. I instantly lean my head back so my hips push further into him while my breasts thrust up to meet his face. He gladly takes his hand from my ass to start massaging them.

I'm in such a state of pure pleasure. My sexy, strong grandpa has just started to get my pussy wet. When I shiver, he notices and smiles. He pulls me back in closer and kisses my lips softly. I tease him when my tongue darts into his mouth. I wrap my arms around him and our lips keep going. His hands move down my waist and start rubbing the special spot in my jeans.

I make a little noise which convinces him I'm ready. He starts to unbutton my jeans. I let him, the sexual tension is rising. I don't want to wait but I know that he loves being in bed when he has sex with me so I stop him and pull him to the other room.

I jump on the bed and while on my knees I take off my top. I know grandpa loves to take my bra off so I leave it on. Then I lay back and strip off my jeans. My panties go too and now grandpa gets to see my shaved pussy. I purposely spread my legs to give him a good view. He told me a couple months ago that he wanted me to keep it shaved for him so I have. I wan to please my grandpa.

Now I watch him at the end of the bed taking off his clothes. As item after item strips off his body I begin to shutter. Suddenly I squeeze my thighs together to give my pussy some relief.

Finally I see it, his fun penis. I love my grandpa's penis. I think about it all the time. He playfully grabs it and swings it around. I squeal like a little girl. He knows I love that.

My legs spread again as he crawls on top of me. Before pushing his penis inside me he reaches behind my back and unsnaps my bra. He pulls it off and quickly sucks my nipples and gently bites them. My grandpa is the only person who does this to me and he does it so well.

"I love you grandpa," I smile up at him. "I love you too," he says and kisses me.

Then he sticks it in. He's rough about it today but that's okay. I love having sex with grandpa no matter what.

He pulls back out and sticks it in again, this time he's found a rhythm. I wrap my legs around him because he loves it and we start to move.

"Oh baby, you're so tight. Yeah little girl, you feel so good. Take it all," he growls as he plows back and forth.

Grandpa's penis is inside me making me feel so good. I've wanted this all day. He's above me thrusting up and down my body. He's so close. I rub my hands up his chest and hold tight to his arms. He smells so good, like a real man.

"I'm getting close grandpa," I whisper while he jams himself into me. I close my eyes, this feels so good. He hits the back of me with every thrust. His penis is splitting me open. I begin to moan which causes his thrusts to quicken.

"Grandpa... grandpa," I scream, "Ooh, yes. Ooh!"

He leans up on his hands and drives his penis into me. My little breasts are shaking back and forth. I can feel his balls slap against my ass and it turns me on even more.

"Honey, I'm going to cum," he grunts and his pace changes up.

"Go ahead grandpa, cum inside me, cum inside your granddaughter. I need to feel you there. Leave it all in me," I encourage him, "You feel so good."

I can feel my orgasm coming on and start making sexy noises I know he likes. He begins to stiffen so I squeeze my pussy around his huge cock and suddenly I feel grandpa's penis begin to shoot his hot load into my pussy. I begin screaming with pleasure from the perfect timing of my orgasm with his. He stays inside me for a moment because he knows I like him there. We both pant and I watch his face. He smiles and kisses me. I wrap my arms around him and pull my legs off. Then he pulls himself out and I feel it twitch a little. He's so damn sexy as he crawls off the bed and wipes himself off.

Then he pulls me from the bed and we take a quick shower. I try giving him a blow in the warm water but he's too tired so we head to the living room and I grab my bag of clothes. He watches me change into my new jeans and tank top.

I walk over and hold him tight. "I love you grandpa," I say and kiss him gently, "That was wonderful. You always make me feel so good." He smiles and walks over to the pantry then comes back with a wad of cash. "I wish you could stay longer," he tells me and sticks the money down my top.

I giggle and pull it back out. Then I grab my things and give him one last kiss. "See you tomorrow grand
