Ashley get punished

As I knelt on the floor with my daughter Ashley spread eagled on her bed, my mind raced with what we had just done. Mentally I was fighting a huge battle, I knew that it was wrong, very wrong, fathers and daughters did not behave like this, she was my little angel after all. Still, she was a 22 year old woman, a consenting adult and she was obviously into what we were doing, one look at her glistening pussy told me that. I thought of all the boys she must have been with over the last few years, she obviously knew a lot more about sex than I ever thought she would.

At last, my will caved in altogether and I decided that I would take the next step down a very dangerous and taboo path.

"Ashley, you have become a dirty little slut, letting boys do things to you that no good girl would. That pussy of yours must be filthy and daddy is going to have to clean it up." I said to her. I saw her body tremble in anticipation as I lowered my head to her pussy. She smelt strongly and I inhaled her scent, before lowering my head to lick my tongue along her swollen lips. It was wonderful and so wrong to taste my daughters juice as I swallowed it. Ashley squealed and I licked her again, making her squirm with pleasure.

"You dirty little whore" I growled at her between licks, "Don't think you can come while I am cleaning you up or else there will be trouble." I continued.

She giggled and said, "Ok Daddy, I will try."

I lowered my head again and began to push my tongue deeper into her, using my thumbs to pry open her soft lips. I sank deeper into her, exploring every area, searching for her clit. She gasped as I licked it, and her body reacted too. Her juices were beginning to flow faster now as she became more excited. I put my hands under her backside and pulled her tight to my face, building a rhythm as she moved in time to it.

I broke away after a moment or two and said, "You better not be thinking of coming young lady."

"No Daddy" came the weak reply between heavy breaths.

I lowered my head and continued my work on "cleaning" her pussy. Again we hit a rhythm and I worked my tongue relentlessly until I could feel her body begin to tense. This time I let it continue until she pushed up hard against my face, her muscles going taut as she came. She cried out as she climaxed, pouring more juice into my waiting mouth, so sinful, but so good!

I continued licking and swallowing for a few more moments and then felt her body relax as the last of the tremors finished.

"Ashley, what did I say about not cumming?" I demanded.

"Sorry Daddy" she whimpered from the bed.

I stood up and she could see my cock in full glory as it had hardened while I had been between her legs.

"I think Daddy is going to have to punish you some more" I said to her.

Her eyes never left my cock and she answered, "Oh no, Daddy, please don't punish me".

"I warned you". I said.

I climbed onto the bed and lowered myself onto her body. She felt hot and damp under me, her skin so soft. I rubbed the tip of my cock along her pussy lips and she gasped. Was I really going to fuck my own daughter, the thought excited me so much and I knew the answer was yes. I pushed the tip of my cock into to her, just enough to feel her lips part and then held it there.

"Oh, Daddy, please don't" she begged with a giggle.

"Don't what?" I demanded.

"Please don't STOP" she cried.

I pushed into her slowly, feeling her lips stretch around my engorged cock. She was very tight but very wet and I slid into her slowly, pushing all the way home until my shaft was completely buried inside her. Ashley gasped and spread herself wider to accommodate me, looking up into my eyes in wonder. I too, could not stop looking at her, my angel as I did the most sinful thing in my life. Her chest heaved and her breasts trembled, her nipples hard and erect.

I lowered my head to them, taking each other in turn into my mouth as I began to slowly move inside her, hearing her moan with pleasure. I tugged on her nipples gently with my teeth, pulling them into my mouth, rolling my tongue around them and then releasing them again.

"Oooooooooohhhhhh Daddy", Ashley gasped in my ear as I built up momentum, my balls slapping against her ass. Her legs came up and wrapped around my back as I drove hard and deep into her, she was so wet and I moved easily within her pussy. Over and over again I pounded into her, the bed creaking as I did so. I felt her body begin to tense and she was crying frantically that she was close.

I needed little encouragement as, once again, I felt my balls begin to tighten, my release getting closer. With a cry, she finally came, shuddering and shaking, her legs tight around my body. One last deep thrust and I came too, pouring more hot seed into her pussy, jet after jet spurting from my cock. It was like nothing I had ever experienced before and I kept going as long as I could, not wanting it to stop.

Eventually, I stopped and collapsed on top of Ashley.

"Oh, baby, that was wonderful" I whispered to her.

"No, you were wonderful Daddy" she whispered back.....
