Kristy felt her brother's manly hands go up underneath her nightie and feel up her pussy

Kristy Sands was a sweet sixteen year old girl who lived on a country farm with her Mama and Papa and her older brother of two years, Ryan. She'd help out on the farm feeding the cows, sheep, chickens, horses, goats.

She and Ryan were close sister and brother. Ever since they were younger they'd be there for one another. They had a close sibling bond. Their parents thought it was awfully sweet that they shared such a bond. Because the house they lived in was small, Kristy and Ryan had to share a bedroom and a bed together. Whenever one had to undress, the other would simply turn away. Even though they slept as far as they could from each other on the bed, they couldn't help but to feel the utter most chemistry between them. Because they knew it was so wrong and forbidden, they didn't do anything.

One evening, when their parents were out with friends, Ryan and Kristy were alone together in the front room watching TV. Sitting together on the couch. They were watching 'The Family Guy'. They burst out laughing and looked at each other.

Kristy felt her eyes look down and over her brother's jeans to his groin. She felt herself blush. An arousal stirred in her pussy. A graphic image of her and Ryan making love came to mind. She quickly got off the couch.

"Where are you going?" asked Ryan.

"I'm tired. Good night," she said.

"Good night," he replied.

Kristy walked over to the bedroom and walked in and then closed it. She pulled off her sweater and jeans and then stood there looking at herself in the full length mirror in her underwear. She touched her pussy with her right hand and felt that it was very wet. She took off her bra and panties and slipped into her thin white nightie and crawled into bed.

About half an hour later the bedroom door opened softly and the sound of soft footsteps walked in and then shut the door.

Ryan took off his shirt and jeans and climbed into his side of the bed. He glanced over at his sleeping sister and thought she was the prettiest girl he had ever seen. A forbidden graphic image came to his mind of making love to her. He shook the horrible thought away. But as Ryan kept looking at her, the more naughty thoughts came to mind making his dick grow a bit in his navy blue briefs. He moved himself nearer to her.

Kristy opened her eyes and smiled at her brother. She saw lust in his eyes. Her pussy was getting wet.

"We can't, Ryan. It's wrong," she said.

He nodded his head as his body moved closer to hers until their bodies touched - heat steaming off them with passion. His dick was as hard as a rock against her body. Ryan wanted to slide it inside his little sister's wet pussy and fuck her.

Kristy felt her brother's manly hands go up underneath her nightie and feel up her pussy with two of his fingers. She inched away.

"No, Ryan, we can't!" she cried. Her body was saying other wise as it inched back towards him so his hands were back up underneath her nightie filling her up with his fingers and her breasts and nipples were teased by his other hand.

She moaned out pleurably.

More than anything, Kristy wanted her brother's hard dick inside her. She was so hot and turned on.

Ryan towered over her and got in between her legs and kissed his lips gently upon hers.

She pulled his briefs half way down his legs and let his big boy out. She cried out loud with pain as Ryan broke her in losing her virginity.

Within five minutes, the pain had subsided, and Kristy was in lust as she made love to her brother, Ryan. She wrapped her legs around his waist as they kissed passionately.

The bed creaked very loudly as their love making increased with intensity.

Ryan breathed heavily and grunted as he was coming close to orgasm.

Kristy cried out and her body trembled as she had her first ever orgasm.

Ryan's body spasmed on top of her and his back arched as he came deep inside her. He thrust a couple more times inside her and then rolled off her. Breathing heavily.

"Are you OK?" he asked. He looked at her and then realised she was no longer a little girl anymore but finally had become a sexy and beautiful young woman. "How do you feel?"

Kristy grinned at him and inched closer and rested her left palm on his bare chest and felt his heart pounding as much as hers was.

"Wonderful, like a new woman," she replied.

Ryan turned towards his sister and stroked her golden blonde head and looked into her eyes.

"Good," he said.

"I want more now," she said, pulling him back on top of her.
