Every opportunity can be good if you want it.

The next few weeks we did some wedding planning. We picked out a church and about everything else we needed. We left out the fact that we were brother and sister and that Judy was pregnant. They both went to the doctor to make sure the babies were healthy. They both were good to go. Judy was due September 7th and Connie was due October 16th. A little close together and it was April at that point, so only so much time. But we didn't let the babies get in the way of wedding planning. It was Tuesday and we planned the wedding for that coming Saturday.

"Do you two want a big wedding cake? Or maybe something smaller," Connie asked.

"A big cake. Even if we don't finish we want some leftovers," Judy replied.

"Already than. I'm putting in the order now and it should be ready by Friday. So we'll pick it up on our way out to the church," Connie said.

"OK thanks for being our wedding planner," I replied.

"As if I was gonne give you a choice," Connie said.

"Good point. But have you ever been to a wedding besides our parents' wedding," Judy asked.

"A couple," Connie replied

"OK then. Well is there anything else we need to take care of," Judy asked.

"Well let's go over the checklist. We got the cake. The place and the Father to marry you. I got a friend of mine's daughter to be your flower girl, and I got a few friends coming. You got a couple friends too. We got the all important white dress for you. Gil has got his tux and shoes and everything else. M'l forgetting anything," Connie asked

"No, I think we're good now," I replied.

"Well wait a minute, let's let the bride have final say if we're done," Judy said.

"We OK then. So what else is there to make sure of we got ready," Connie asked.

"Well I don't know. I just wanna be the final say, that's all," Judy replied.

"OK bridezilla," I said.

Then we all just laughed a little. I don't think Judy thought of herself like that, but she was getting there. Every lady wants her dream wedding no matter what. Every now and then a woman can get it. This time she was marrying her brother, it was a dream for her.

"Well, with all that taken care of now, make sure you let me know if there's anything else you need for the wedding. I mean you never know just what a bride may just want at her wedding," Connie said.

"Will do," Judy replied.

Then Connie came over and sat with us in between us. She lifted up Judy's shirt and felt her stomach a bit.

"OK seriously, my stomach isn't public property," Judy said.

"And we're the public," Connie asked.

Judy didn't reply and just let us both feel her stomach. It was a first for all of us. Our first kid and Connie's first great niece or nephew. We just chilled there for a few minutes cuddling a bit. But as time goes on with pregnant women, they sometimes get horny or extra affectionate if you prefer. Then Judy leaned in and started kissing me.

"Now what is that for," I asked.

"Well maybe I just wanted to kiss you. Is that a problem," Judy asked.

"No," I replied.

Then we continued to make out bit and Connie felt Judy's boobs.

"Now my stomach is one thing, but my boobs, that's something else entirely," Judy said.

"Well with us being pregnant, milk comes pouring in quicker and quicker. I just wanted to feel a bit," Connie replied.

"And that's it," I asked.

"Maybe," Connie replied.

Then Judy kissed Connie passionately for a minute as she felt her boobs as well. Connie had decent sized breasts even though she never had kids before, now this was gonna make her boobs really big. Then Connie took off her shirt and bra so we could see her boobs.

"Wow, their spectacular if I do say so myself," I said.

"Well, your only sexually attracted to me," Connie replied.

"I'm sexually attracted to you too you know," Judy said.

"OK what do you think? I know I'm only 3 months along now, but how do they look now," Connie asked.

"Their great honestly. I'm getting more and more horny by the minute," Judy replied.

"Well they don't bite if you wanna touch them," Connie said.

Then Judy began touching her boobs a bit. She pinched her nipples a bit and wiggled them as well. I kissed Connie again, but not as passionately though. Then Connie moved her hands to my pants. She undid them and got her hands into my boxers. Then Judy got down on her knees on the floor and pulled out my dick after pulling down my pants and boxers. Then she took my dick in her mouth as I continued making out with Connie. We did have more than a handful of threesomes together. The sex only gotten better time after time. But we did make it known that after the babies were born that we would stop the sexual part of the relationship, at least for a little while. Judy kept blowing me passionately as he knees were still on the floor. Connie had gotten down on her knees behind Judy and began grabbing her boobs from behind her.

"Oh nice and big. I love them," Connie said.

Then her hands went south and she began undoing her pants as well as she was on her back then, exposing her purple thong she was wearing.

"Oh the thong? Very sexy Judy," Connie said.

Then she took her thong off too. She spread out her butt cheeks and began tongue fucking her from her backside. It was a little weird, like something you see in the porn movies. But Judy liked it.

"Oh shit aunt Connie. Can you hit my g-spot from back there," Judy asked.

"I think I can do that for you," Connie replied.

Then Connie was sure to get back there nice and deep. She never had been fucked like that, but her moans started coming out fairly loudly.

"Oh shit I like that aunt Connie. That's good. Keep fucking me like that. Use that tongue to make me cum," Judy said.

With Judy's lips around my dick and Connie's tongue deep inside Judy's pussy, we had another fuck train going on. We almost wish we had a few more people there to make the train even bigger. But then they both got on separate sides of me and took turns blowing me. With two women blowing you, it really starts to get hard to hold your load. But I did the best I could for awhile. But of course I couldn't hold much longer.

"Ladies, I'm cumming, I'm cumming," I said loudly.

Then they both got right above my dick and stuck out their tongues all let all the cum flow out right onto their tongues and faces. I came seriously like a fountain for like 20 seconds straight. It felt absolutely amazing honestly. As I was done, Judy still kept stroking my dick slowly as she kissed me with cum still on her face.

"That was good," I said.

"But your not ready to quit just yet are you," Judy asked.

"Absolutely not," I replied.

Then we kissed some more for a couple minutes and then I stuck my dick inside Judy as deep as I could as she began fucking Connie right after Connie got completely naked and laid down flat on her back.

"And your really getting good eating pussy Judy. Yeah get in there nice and deep like that for me. Make love to your aunt," Connie said.

Judy spread out her very wet pussy lips and made sure her tongue hit her g-spot. Then Connie really started to belt out the loud ass moans as if she was gonna die. Did it really feel that good? It must have because Connie started struggling a bit moving around like mad. She put her hands on Judy's head for awhile making sure Judy got absolutely every drop of cum that came out.

"Oh shit, oh shit I'm gonna cum, I'm gonna cum now Judy, I'm gonna fucking explode now," Connie said.

Then Connie did explode all over Judy's face. She came like a big butt waterfall or something like that. Then Judy climbed up on top of Connie and I came right on Judy's back as she had her orgasm as well. Then I laid next to them. Judy leaned over and kissed me on the lips for a minute.

"Well still some really good sex. So is this like what 34 now," Connie asked.

"Somewhere around there, I think," I replied.

"I swear every time it's been better. Who knew that sex with your niece and nephew could seriously be the best sex of your life? I mean I would have never thought in a million years I'd be pregnant with my nephew's baby while my niece was pregnant with her brother's baby. Maybe a weird fantasy, but it's here now," Connie said.

"Very well said aunt Connie," I replied.

"Well are you truly ready to marry your sister? I mean it's something huge. It's not something you take lightly. I mean are you as ready as you'll ever be," Connie asked.

"Yes. I got my soul mate here. She truly is the best woman for me to marry. I mean maybe every guy that has a sister, should just marry his sister," I replied.

"Well not every brother and sister can get along as well as we can together. So maybe we just had the great big spark you know," Judy said.

"I guess I see your point. But we've discovered a great chemistry that seriously everyone just has no idea about quite yet," I replied.

Then we all kissed each other for a couple minutes.

"And we discovered that maybe your aunt can be a sexual object too. Not just someone you gotta visit every now and then," Judy said.

"And I thought you just forgot about me," Connie replied.

"Well, if we didn't have sex that night would you still be here," I asked.

"Well after I found out about you two, I don't know. I think I would have sooner or later especially if you were getting married. I would wanna be here for you two. So it worked out pretty well. I'm gonna finally be a mother, your gonna be a mother and your getting a double dose. Father and father," Connie replied.

"Well if you look at it that way, I suppose," I said.

"And what do you mean that way," Judy asked.

"It was just a joke," I replied.

"Don't joke about that. To me this a huge blessing. I couldn't be happier that it worked out like this. I love you and I wanna be with you. I hope you truly feel the same way. I'm sorry but that is definitely nothing to joke about," Judy said.

"OK I'm sorry sweetheart. I didn't mean to make you feel like that. I'm very happy with you too. I'm really glad to marry you. You're the best girl I ever met," I replied.

"It's OK, just make sure that's how passionate you are when we're reciting our vows," Judy said trying not to laugh.

"What," I asked.

"You're just easy. I barely got through that and you brought it. I brought out the passion in you. I want that forever for us," Judy replied.

"Well don't do that again. And I will be," I said.

"That was a little mean Judy. He really does care about you, and you nailed him to the wall. You used that and got him. But it's good make sure that you're really ready for this. When you find the one, you just know. But as always life can throw you curve balls every now and then, so you gotta remember, you love each other," Connie replied.

"We remember. But as you said life always throws us curve balls and never know what's around the corner," I said.

"But your absolutely sure you want this for us still I mean you've gotten a little more than a taste on what's it's like to live with me and you got a baby on the way too. So is this what you want," Judy asked.

I put my hands around her and brought her to me.

"Yes of course sweetheart. I love you and wanna be with you forever too. I do look at us together as a huge blessing. I know I wanna be with you until the day I die and have another kid with you if I can. It's truly the best thing that ever happened to me," I said.

"Promise," Judy asked.

"Yes I promise," I replied.

Then we kissed again. We kissed very passionately for over a minute and I got on top of her and put my hand on her stomach again. We were both still completely naked and making out. We really were as happy as we could be with each other. It was perfect for us and now we were just getting through it with flying colors considering that we're having a baby that was completely unplanned. Then I proposed to her because I loved her and really I didn't see any point of waiting honestly. So I did propose to my sister. Then we got up and got dressed.

"So anything sound good for dinner," Connie asked.

"Maybe some steaks or something like that, then maybe we can watch a movie," I said.

"That sounds good," Judy replied.

Then we went to the kitchen and got out some steaks for us to eat. And us eating together had become very big as well. We pretty much always ate together unless someone had to work late or were at the doctors office. We cooked the steaks on the broiler and sat down at the dinner table. I pulled out both of their chairs for them.

"Thank you," Judy said.

"And thank you too Gil," Connie said.

Then we all sat down and started eating. Of course at the top of our conversation, it was the wedding but something else too.

"Well I'm sorry to bring up a sore subject, but were you ever close to marrying Bill," Connie asked.

"Well no. Honestly I'm extra glad now. He doesn't know I'm pregnant with my brother's baby or that he had proposed. He hasn't tried to contact me at all. It's like he just fell out of my life completely. I know I'm not like a supermodel, but I'm almost mad he hasn't tried at all. I mean it was a man I could have married. You know what I mean," Judy asked.

"Well I see you got a point. Don't get me wrong, but I sat screw him. He's out, now Gil is in, that simple. And did you ever find out the sex of the baby," Connie asked.

"No, not yet. I think we wanna be surprised," I replied.

"Can I throw something out there," Judy asked.

"What," Connie asked.

"You wanna start sleeping with us," Judy asked.
