Me and my Step Sister Continue our fun

This is a continuation of the series The First time with my Step Sister. Please read those stories first and it will bring you p to speed with where we are at.

Me and my step sister Lori had had several encounters together and had gotten use to one or the other coming in to the others room for a little fun at night. This had brought us very close together and we had started looking out for each other at least sexually. We found that we had trust in each other and could come to each other for things we could not talk about with anyone else.

It was a Friday night, and I had been out on a date with this hot little cheerleader from another school. It was actually the school my Step Sister went too. This chick was so hot, she had this long blond hair that was real wavy and hung half way down her back. This was the mid 80's, so you know what hair styles were like then. She had these sexy eyes and a beautiful face. She had the biggest succulent lips that I knew would feel incredible wrapped around my hard cock. And this girl had a body too, she was about 5'2", 110 pounds, 32 C cups, and she was firm from head to toe.

I picked her up and she wanted me to take her to this big party that was going on. I was a very popular guy and seemed to know about everyone. When I picked her up she had on the tightest pair of jean, that hugged her ass perfectly, a little tub top and was wear some black heels. She look like a little sex bomb and all I could think about was making her explode.

We headed over to the party and hung out for a while, had a few drinks. We started getting closer and were kissing a good bit. I finally got her back into one of the bed rooms. We started making out and kissing. I started running my hands all over her body, she felt so good. I pulled her tube top down and there was the best looking breast I had ever seen. They were firm but soft, milky smooth with the pinkest nipples I had ever seen. Her nipples were long and hard. I started to rub my hands over them, and squeezing them firm but softly.

I started kissing down her neck and she was pushing my head down toward your tits. I kissed my way to her nipple, licked my tongue over it several times and gently sucked it into my mouth. I massaged her other breast with my hand while I sucked and played with the other one. She was moaning and pulling my head into her. She would pull my face up to kiss me deep and then push it back down to her breast again. This went on for what seemed like hours. I was on top of her on the bed, between her legs and we were grinding our bodies against each other. I kept trying to get into her pants but she would stop me every time.

I know we were in that bedroom for a while; my cock had been so hard for so long it ached to be touched. I realized I was not going to get any more then I was getting from her and it was getting close to time for her to be home. We kept making out till it was time to go, said our good bye and heading out. In the car ride all the way to her house she kept rubbing my crotch and telling me how she wanted to do more but was afraid to. I told her not to worry about it and that I wanted more also, but it was great being with her and I had a great time. When we got to her house I went in for a while and watched TV and we made out more. By the time I left I was so Horny I couldn't stand it. I just knew I was going to have to get home and jack off to relieve this pressure in my balls.

I got home to a quiet house, everyone was asleep. I made my way down to the basement to find my step sister lying in bed watching TV. As I walked toward my room she said "I've been waiting on you to get home, I knew that little cock tease would have you all worked up and ready to fuck me when you got here" I looked at her and asked how she knew I wouldn't get lucky and get some? She said "I know her, she never puts out!"

I walked toward the bed and she sat up and reached for my crotch. She rubbed my hard aching cock and looked up to me. "Looks like she as this thing all swelled up and ready for me alright." Are you just going to stand there or are you going to fuck my brains out with this thing? With that she undid my jeans and pulled them down, my hard cock sprang out rubbing against her face. My cock was soaked with pre-cum and smeared it across her lips. She grabbed my hard dick and licked around the head, slowly licking up all the pre-cum and savoring my taste. She opened her mouth and took my cock in. I could feel her tongue brushing against the head of my cock and it was driving me wild.

She bobbed her head back and forth on my shaft, taking more and more of me into her warm wet mouth. I had my hands on her head, and was guiding her back and forth. Her mouth felt so good, so warm and wet, the feel of her tongue was driving me crazy. She knew I was not going to last long; she stroked my cock with her hand as she pulled her mouth off the end of my dick. She reached her tongue out licking at the head, she looked up at me and said "Give me all that cum she built up in you, I want you to cum in my mouth and then I need you to fuck my little pussy till I can't walk"

My pre-cum was all over her lips and tongue, she went back to sucking me hard and fast, stroking my shaft with her hand. She had her eyes looking up at me; it looked like she was begging me to cum with her eyes. I could feel my cock starting to swell even more. She felt it too, because she pulled her head back and started stoking me faster and faster. "Give me that on and cum all over my face..." she held her mouth open and her tongue out and aimed my cock right at her mouth. My cock started to pulse and spurt after spurt shot out of my cock, I could see her licking and slurping my cum up. She pressed her mouth back over the head of my dick and sucked the last drop of cum from me. She pulled her mouth off and licked her lips, she still had a little cum on her chin and I watched as she took her finger and scooped it up and held it to her lips and licked it off her finger.

Watching her do that I was still hard as a rock, She pulled me down on the bed and had me lay on my back. She swung her legs over me and reach down between us and grabbed my cock. She held it up and started to lower her sweet pussy down on me. I could feel her pussy lips sliding past the head and down the steel shaft of my cock as she pressed down hard, feeding my cock into her tight pussy. She sat up on me and rode me like crazy. Up and down and back and forth, grinding her pussy down on me, I was so far up inside her I could feel her cervix pressing against the head of my cock. My hands were on her hips pushing and pulling her up and down on top of me, I reach around her and grabbed her ass and pulled her checks apart.

That just made her fuck me harder, and faster. I could feel her pussy getting tighter on me, and I knew she was getting ready to cum. I started pushing up into her harder now also, she was breathing in ragged little breaths, and sweat was building up on her body. "That's it...That's it....Right there...ooooohhhh fuck right there....., I'm cumming, ohhhhh God I'm cumming, Yess... Yess....OOOOHHHHHH...." She kept grinding her pussy against me until she came down, I could still feel her pussy convulsing around my cock. I could feel her cum running out of her and down my cock. I was soaked down there.

I grabbed her around the waist and rolled her, pinning her down underneath me. My cock still lodged deep in her wet pussy. I looked down at her and started to push my cock in and out of her. She had her eyes closed and moved her hips up to meet my thrust. I reached down and lifted her legs up, pinning them against my elbows, this had her pussy raised up, and her legs spread as wide as possible. I started to pull my cock all the way out and slam it back into her. She started to cum almost instantly, over and over she kept cumming and I kept ramming my cock into her as hard and as fast as I could.

She was trying to talk but nothing was coming out, she was just babbling and moaning. I could feel my cock slamming against her cervix with every push inside of her. Her pussy was soaking wet. Her cum was running down her ass and all over the bed. I was getting closer and closer. I was fucking her so hard I couldn't stop if I wanted too. God her pussy felt so good. She looked so hot. Her eyes were glazed over and she had the lustiest look on her face. Neither of us was thinking clearly. "Cum in me...ohhh Godd give me you cum....ooohhhh fuckkk....ohhh fuckkk... God I want to feelllll you cummmmmm...

My cock started to swell up and it felt like it must grew over an inch. She moaned deeply and and started to say something when the first shot of my cum splashed inside her hot waiting pussy. Her eyes gazed into mine, lost for words. Her pussy started to convulse and was milking the cum right out of my hard cock. I pushed deep into her and she ground her pussy back on me. Spurt after spurt filling up her pussy. As we both came down, we laid there shocked that we let what just happened happen. You could feel the fear in both of us. "What did we just do???" "You just came inside me???" "God it felt great up what iff???"

I reach up and kissed her on the lips, wrapped my arms around her and assured her everything would be ok. And that we would just have to be more careful. We said our good nights and she went off to her room.

About a week later she got her period and things were back to normal. She is going to start on birth control now so we will not have to worry anymore.
