A power cut gives a young woman a good time

It was getting close to midnight as I laid in bed watching a video of two girls playing with each other on my computer.

I twisted my pubes around my finger and pulled slightly. This video was turning me on. I ran my fingers over my stomach and then back down into my pubes. I pushed a finger through my lips and ran it up and down the slit before placing it on my clit and rubbing slowly.

I watched one of the girls bury her face between the other girls legs while her hands squeezed her breasts. I increased the speed of my rubbing and closed my eyes for a second.

When I opened them, the video had disappeared and my lamp wasn't on.

Brilliant.

I checked the time on my mobile – almost midnight.

My father and brother weren't up and I doubted that my brother-in-law was awake, so I was the one that had to get up to check the fuse box.

I pulled my nightie down and got out of bed, flicking the light switch to test it. Nothing. I went out into the hall and tried that light, still nothing.

Frustrated, I sighed and made my way downstairs. There's a flashlight in the lounge. I guided myself with my hands and started to inch my way through the gap between the door, sofa and wall. (Due to the size of the sofa that mum wanted, it's left a very small gap to get through. Two people struggle to get through at the same time).

I stubbed my toe while trying to get through and gasped as I bent over the sofa arm in pain. I breathed heavily and placed my hands on the sofa to steady myself. As I moved backwards, my naked ass came into contact with something hard which pushed through my cheeks and jabbed between them. I groaned out loud and stayed perfectly still until the wave of pleasure that hit me subsided. I moved myself forward, then backwards, enjoying the hard length.

Before I could move again, a pair of hands grabbed my hips and yanked me backwards, thrusting my ass onto his erect cock. His soft head jabbed between my cheeks again and he pushed me further over the sofa arm before spreading my cheeks with his hands. He ran his length up and down, between my ass cheeks before he guided it to my sopping cunt and thrust himself in to me.

I moaned into the cushion as he entered me swiftly. He moved quickly, in and out, in and out. His fingers dug into my hips as he held me steady. His breathing quickened as he thrust himself into me with more force each time. His strokes were long and deep.

I groaned quietly as he slowed down. His cock throbbing in time with my pussy. His strokes became slower. He teased me by moving out slowly until only the tip was in, then he pushed himself back in to me. Deliberately teasing me. Making me moan. Making me beg for more. I pushed myself backwards, asking for more. Needing more.

He moved one hand to my pussy and rubbed at my hardened nub. I gasped loudly as the pleasure became too much and my legs started to shake. As I began to climax, he pulled himself out of my pussy, rubbing at my clit harder and faster before he slammed his hard cock back into my love hole once more.

I moaned louder into the cushion and balled up my fists. I pulled my ass cheeks apart with my hands, just for something to grab. I didn't expect him to slide a finger into my puckered little hole. I grunted as he slid his finger into my ass hole and thrust his cock deeper into my pussy and I let out a scream as he rammed both his cock and his finger, harder and deeper into me, filling me with a hot barrage of cum.

We rested there until his cock softened and slipped out of my sopping wet cunt. He removed his finger from my ass and slapped my cheeks before leaving the room.

I pulled myself upright and steadied myself before wandering back upstairs. I got into bed and relaxed, still panting. The realisation setting in; that I'd just been fucked, without knowing who it was.

My last thought before drifting off to sleep was that we need a power cut more often.
