Things get wild in mom's bed

We all stumbled naked and tipsy into the house. I wasn't sure what the sleeping arrangements were going to be after the session we'd just had, but I did know that after a full day of drinking and dumping a load into Beverly's ass and another in her pussy that I was way too whipped to drive home.

Even though he's just seen me fuck his mother – before watching her suck his own cum from his girlfriend - I was still a bit wary of what Jeff may think of me actually sleeping in his stepdad's bed.

I needn't have worried, though, because Beverly immediately took charge of the situation. She took Sherry by the hand and moved us all down the hall to the master bedroom.

As we followed the women down the hallway, Jeff muttered to me, "This is fucking wild, dude, and fucking awesome."

I couldn't have agreed more, and seeing Beverly lead Sherry by the hand gave me a moment to really appreciate the differences between these two hot women, one with flaming red hair and an ample ass, the other a tight, compact little blonde. Just before we entered the bedroom, Sherry looked back and winked at Jeff as she ran her hand down his mother's ass and pinched her, leaving a delicious little red mark on her.

The king-size was plenty big enough for the four of us, and Beverly directed the kids to the other side as she reached for me. We kissed a bit before laying back on the bed, with Beverly whispering, "I can't believe we're doing this – and I hope it's not over yet."

We all pretty much collapsed on the bed at that point, the ladies in the middle, Jeff and me on either side. At this point everyone was too spent to go on, and we all fell asleep pretty quickly.

Sometime later, I was in that nice area of drifting in and out of sleep, images of the previous day coming to me in both states, and my cock hardening. Laying there wondering what was real and what was dream, I heard Sherry whispering.

"I've never been with a woman before today, Mrs., uh, Beverly."

"You're only my second, Sherry, but I've wanted to lick you since the first time Jeff brought you home," Bev said. In the dim light, I saw Sherry's head resting on Beverly's chest as she stroked the younger girl's hair.

"I can't believe you, you know, um, went down on me," said Sherry, and I imagined how cute she must be if she was blushing.

"Say, 'licked my cunt,' Sherry - I want you to be a nasty little girl for me, " Beverly whispered a little fiercely. I smiled to myself, enjoying their dialogue.

"Licked my cunt - I can't believe you licked my cunt, with, you know, Jeff's cum inside me."

"I couldn't stop myself, baby. I wanted to taste you so bad - and I love the taste of a man's cum anyway," said Beverly.

"Yeah, but, um...you're his mom," Sherry said, a little fear in her voice.

Beverly laughed softly and said, "Yeah, well, that was a a whole lotta crazy, - but it tasted good coming out of you."

"I know how good he tastes, Beverly," sighed Sherry. "I love it when he cums in my mouth."

"Mmmmm, do you, baby? Does my Jeff cum good for you when you suck his big cock?"

"Loads and loads...and I try not to waste a drop."

"That's a good little girl – such a slutty little girl, " and they both giggled a bit before stopping themselves to keep from waking Jeff and me.

"Does Tom taste good, " Sherry asked, and my cock definitely twitched at this.

"Nearly as sweet as Jeff's cum when I was sucking it out of your cunt tonight, " Bev said, and I didn't know whether to be flattered or pissed. I mean, yeah, she said I tasted good, but she also clearly said I was only nearly as sweet as her son's cum.

"Of course, Jeff tasted better because it was mixed with your pussy, baby, " Beverly said, and while they both giggled again, I felt my honor partially restored.

"Let's do something fun, Sherry, " Beverly continued. "Let's suck them off while they're sleeping...first one to make her guy cum wins!"

"Mmmm, ok...but I was, uh, you know, hoping you'd let me taste Tom," said Sherry.

"Oh, that horny bastard would love having your sweet young lips wrapped around his cock, " and the cock of the horny bastard in question twitched again. "Tell you what...you suck him...I'll watch."

I was still pretending to be asleep, because there was no way I was going to blow this chance.

Eyes closed tight, I felt the bed shift as Sherry moved over Beverly and down the bed a bit.

"He's already hard," Sherry whispered as she took me softly in her hand and ran her thumb over the head.

"Dreaming of you, I bet, said Beverly, and I felt her shift on the bed, too.

Sherry started planting little kisses over the length of my cock, before giving it a long, slow, lollypop kiss. When she swirled her tongue around the head, it was all I could do to continue to pretend to be asleep.

"That's it, baby, suck him good, " I heard Beverly say, her breathing heavy and her whispers full of lust.

Sherry was taking me deep now, going real slow, then back up. She let my cock pop from her mouth with a loud smack before twirling her tongue around and around my head. I felt the bed shift again and figured Beverly was about to burrow behind this little slut and lick her ass and cunt while she drained my cock.

Sherry stroked me with her hand while she ran her tongue over my balls. Finally my eyes flew open, and I looked down to see her staring me right in the eyes as she again took me deep in her hot little mouth.

Letting me pop out again, she whispered, "You like?" and then did that swirly thing again. I groaned and grasped her head, face fucking her as my hips came fully off the bed.

I couldn't see Beverly, but suddenly I heard a gasp from the other side of the bed.

"Oh, fuck, Sherry, that feels so fucking good," Jeff moaned.

Sherry and I both looked up in surprise, because Sherry's lips were most definitely otherwise occupied. But there was that familiar red head, bobbing up and down over her son's cock.

"Oh my god," Sherry said, before I forced my cock back into her mouth.

Jeff's eyes flew open, and he realized for the first time who was sucking him off.

"Jesus Christ, mom, what the fuck," he groaned.

Beverly slipped him out of her mouth and continued to work her hand up and down on his shaft.

"Exactly what you want, baby – and what mom wants, too," she said and then swallowed his cock again.
