Mallory leaned her head back and stared at the ceiling as the hot water hit her chest and ran down her body. It flowed over her firm, generous breasts and down her flat tummy all the way into the warmth of her pussy and down her legs.

It had been a long day, she had gotten out of her last college class late and after running errands had gotten home long after everyone else was in bed. She was 25 but still in college so she lived in her childhood home with her parents and twin teen brothers. The twins were 17 and high school seniors.

She bent her head forward and let the water run down her back and stood there trying to remember when she had been so relaxed, when she suddenly looked up and saw one of the twins standing in her restroom watching her intently through the clear glass of the shower stall.

They stared at one another for what seemed an eternity, then without thinking on it Mallory turned her back to him and began washing as if he were not there. It was totally silent in the restroom except for the sound of the water splashing off Mallory's body and the swish of the soap as she passed the loofah between her legs.

She heard the rustle of clothing then felt cool air as the shower door was opened. She felt hands reach around her to cup her breasts as someone knelt behind her, and the hot moistness of a tongue as he licked the water from just above her ass.

Her whole body pulsed and every sense in her came alive, it did not even occur to her to be shocked that it was her 17 year old brother touching her in such an intimate way. She pressed her palms against the glass as his tongue licked her pussy lips front to back before he pushed the tip into her ass causing her to moan loudly.

He stood up behind her, already taller than her, and his young body was so well sculpted that she could feel every rock hard muscle pressing against her as he leaned over her. His hands came around to cup her pussy and his cock rubbed against her ass crack before he brought the tip to rest at her butt hole.

She braced herself as his thick hard cock entered her ass and she felt him throbbing just inside of her. She pushed back onto him, taking half of him into her ass and he let out a groan before grabbing her hips and steadying her, then pushing further into her.

He fucked her in the ass, harder, faster, and deeper, the more she urged him on, both of them lost in the sheer sexual pleasure of the act. Finally, when he was ready to cum he pulled out of her ass and turned her around.

They stood for a moment, naked with water streaming off of them facing one another before he lifted her onto his hard cock and pinned her against the glass impaling her with the full length of his cock. He purposely pounded roughly into her, knowing she wanted it like that, until he could feel her begin to shake with the power of her orgasm. He ground himself into her as his own cum shot out of his still throbbing cock.

He pulled out of her, not a word between them as he rinsed himself off, but before opening the shower door he reached between her legs and squeezed hard as he pulled her close. He pinched her nipple and bit her shoulder lightly before whispering, "Later," into her ear and leaning down to also lightly nip at her hard nipple.

Then, he left her there, already throbbing and wet in anticipation of another encounter with him.

Only after stepping out of the shower and wrapping in a robe did she look into her own eyes in the mirror and realize that she had no idea which brother had just thoroughly fucked her.
