When a solar flare takes out most of the world it is up to my family to repopulate the earth.

December 21 st was not the end of the world like they had predicted. However, it was the day we received the news the world was going to end. NASA had tracked a solar flare that was going to hit the earth's atmosphere in four days. The flare would cause a 12 hour spike in the temperature, causing it to reach to over two hundred degrees.

The government was already making plans for underground bunkers and trying to save the world's top scientists. My family, however, didn't fall into that category. My name is Rachel and I am 16 years old. I live with my sister, Amber, and our dad and two brothers. We live on medium -sized farm in north Alabama.

When dad heard the news he told us of a cave that was on our property the Native Americans used to use. It was beside a creek and went way back into the side of the mountain. Over the next four days we stocked the cave full of every kind of supplies we could think of, including some cows. Dad was afraid there would be nothing left except for what we brought with us. Dad's two brothers, Uncle Dave and Uncle Scott, came with us. Uncle Dave brought his 19 year old son, James with him. In total there were eight of us.

Everything went just as NASA had said it would. The solar flare hit and the temps rose. It got so hot we even felt it in the cave. It came close to a hundred degrees in the cave. After it was over some of the men went out to check everything. The house was still there but the rest of the livestock were dead and most of the vegetation was dead also. Being a farmer dad said it was the worst he had ever seen but thought everything would be okay in the long run.

Uncle Dave took his boy and they went looking for other survivors. When they came back twelve hours later they had not found a single soul. Dad tried to get the TV to work but no luck. Next he tried the radio, again, no luck. It looked like it was just the eight of us.

After about a week had passed Amber and I were coming from getting water from the creek when we saw all the men gathered around talking. When they saw us they got all quiet. I heard dad say he would talk to us about it.

“What’s going on, dad?” Amber asked. Amber was a year older than me and was always the first to know everything.

“Well……. See…the things is….well, you see….it’s like this,” dad stuttered out.

“Dad, what’s wrong?” I asked.

“I’ll just come straight to it then. As far as we know we are the last living humans on the planet,” he said. “With that being said, it’s only right for us to start the population up again.”

Amber knew what he was talking about but I had no clue what he meant.

“But, dad, we’re all related,” Amber protested. I still didn’t know what they were talking about.

“I know, angel, but there is no other way. Besides, the men are getting right lonely without female companionship. We are just men after all.” When he said that I knew exactly what he was talking about. I’m not going to lie but it gave me a little tingle in my panties.

My dad was in his early forties and still looked good to me. When I was little I used to dream about growing up and marrying daddy. Amber used to tell me I was crazy because daddy would pick her instead. I guess we were now going to find out who he would pick.

Amber seemed to understand where dad was coming from and gave in.

“When and how is this going to happen, daddy?” she asked.

“Well, there is no time like the present, angel.”

Dad took both our hands and led us into the house. The rest of the family joined us in the living room. Daddy explained that since we were his daughters he would be our first. Amber was to go first since she was the oldest. After daddy was done the others would go in one at a time until they had all had a turn. Then daddy would take me to bed and the same thing would happen again. Dad said the ultimate goal was to get us pregnant so all cum had to go into our pussies. I giggled when he said that because we usually weren’t allowed to say those words.

Dad took Amber in his arms and carried her into the bedroom, he told Michael, my oldest brother to make sure I was ready when the time came. After they disappeared the men all got in a circle around me. They started running their hands all over my body. At first I was very nervous but it really did feel good. There were so many hands on me I didn't know whose hands belonged to whom.

Someone told me to raise my arms and off went my shirt. I wasn't wearing a bra because I never liked wearing them so my breasts were now being played with. Someone started to unbutton my pants when I heard Amber scream out a little.

"Is she okay?"

Michael told me it always hurts the first time but after that it feels really good. Before I could respond I noticed I was already naked in a room with five men. They were kissing me all over and someone had put their hand between my legs and was playing with my pussy. I loved all the attention I was getting but part of me was a little scared of the first pain I would feel.

After some time, I'm not sure how long; dad came out of the back with Amber. She looked amazing standing there without any clothes on. She had a huge smile on her face and she just looked at Michael and gave him the "come here" gesture with her finger. He smiled and followed her back. Dad came over to me and took me away from the rest of the men. He sat down and put me in his lap. I had never seen him naked before but I liked what I saw.

Daddy started kissing my neck and playing with my body.

"I didn't think I would be ready to go again so soon, princess, but you are so beautiful."

I loved it when dad called me names like that. He asked me if I was ready to become a woman and I shyly nodded. He picked me up like he did Amber and carried me into my bedroom. He laid me down and got beside me and started kissing me and putting his tongue in my mouth. It made me feel all grown up and I kissed him back just the same.

"Spread your legs for daddy, princess," daddy told me. I did as I was told and daddy climbed between my legs. He reached down and grabbed his thingy, which later told me to call his cock, and put it up against my pussy.

"It's just like ripping off a Band-Aid, baby. Might as well do it fast." With that he pushed slowly but persistently into me and broke my hymen. I screamed out loud when he did that. He kept going till he was fully inside me. Once there he stayed still and didn't move. He kept kissing my tears and telling me what a good girl I was. After a few minutes he asked if I was feeling better, and I was.

He pulled his cock out a little and pushed it back in. It started to feel really good and I told him that.

Hearing that daddy started picking up speed and thrusting into me hard. The pain was all gone now and I was enjoying what daddy was doing to me.

“Oh god, Rachel, my sweet Rachel, you feel so amazing. I love you so much, princess.”

“Oh daddy, I love you too.”

“Daddy’s going to put a baby in you. Are you ready?”

“Yes, daddy, make me a mommy.”

With that daddy tensed up and pushed his cock into me as far as it would go. I felt a sudden warmth inside my pussy. I assumed it was his cum he was talking about. It felt wonderful making daddy so happy. Even though it didn’t feel like it daddy had spent half an hour inside of me. When he rolled off me he went to the door and opened it. Michael was there waiting with my brother, Jeremy right behind him.

Michael wasted no time and came right inside and climbed on top of me. Michael left the door open and Jeremy watched us fuck the whole time. With the door open I could hear the sounds of Amber, and whoever it was she was with, fucking. With all that was going on it didn’t take Michael long to cum inside me either. Before he was even off the bed Jeremy was already inside me. It was Jeremy who gave me my first orgasm. It was wonderful. From then on I had six more before the night was over. At the end of the night I had a pussy full of six loads of cum.

The next day the men gathered us in the living room and told us they had a surprise for us.

“We have decided,” my dad said, “that you two are not to do anymore chores from now on. We rode you both very hard last night and are going to do the same thing to you tonight. We want you two to get plenty of rest. However, we do have one condition.”

“Oh lord, here it comes,” said Amber. “What is it?”

“You two can’t wear anymore clothes,” they all said together.

Amber and I looked at each other and smiled, then stripped down to nothing in record time. I leaned back and looked at all the men staring at our pussies. I spread my legs to view them a better view.

“Are you sure you want to wait until tonight,” I smiled.
