Well my love life has pretty much sucked ass. Every single guy I've been with dumped me. Luckily I never trusted them enough to actually fuck them. I haven't seen my brother Adrian in about three or four weeks now. It makes me sad. He was my shoulder that I needed. Anyway I guess I'll introduce myself again. My name is Jordan, but my brother and probably most of you know me as Tink. So yes I'm home alone, with nothing to do. I've watched all of my movies three times too many and my friends aren't texting me back. Too busy either partying or getting laid, or both. I can't even remember the last time I had sex....okay thats a lie. The last time I had sex was with my brother. And it was amazing no matter how wrong it sounds.

I flip through the channels on my tv hoping to find something that can make time go by faster. But whats the point? Not like I'm waiting for something or like tomorrow will be any better. Something told me to go out with my friends. I turn off the tv and toss the remote over my shoulder onto my bed. I look around my room for something entertaining. My eyes land on my computer. Eh why not? I sit down and move the mouse a little and the first thing that comes on my screen is pictures of girls giving guys blowjobs and god knows what else. I definitely didn't look this up but it did remind me that I haven't had sex or masturbated since I last saw my brother. I click the videos link and found a video to my liking. It started out with a girl stripping of course. Blonde girl with what looked like 32D boobs, and a smoking hot ass. I bite my nail as I slip my hand under my pants. The girl on the video bent over sexually, showing off her ass and her pussy. Then a guy with huge muscles and dick walked up behind her and got down his knees. She stayed bent over for him as he rub her pussy from behind. He licked from her pussy lips all the way to her ass and back down. She moaned slightly and spread her legs a little wider. The man then shoved a finger in her and twisted it around, pulled it in and out, and twisted some more. the girl now had her hands on the floor to keep her balance and was licking her lips and smiling as the camera showed her face. The muscular guy stood up and the girl then got on her knees taking his dick in her hands, and while looking up at camera, she barely licked the tip. She licked the tip again and then traveled down his shaft to his balls and sucked one in. The camera showed her sucking his dick in from a different angle, from this angle you could see how her boobs slightly jiggled and her rubbing her pussy furiously. The angle went back to where she looked up at the camera and it was like she was sucking you off. She went down on him so far that her nose touched his skin above his dick and she didn't even gag. I was impressed. After she used her boobs for a while, which looked as if she had rubbed baby oil all over them, they went to a couch in the living room. And the girl bent over the armrest while the guy positioned himself behind her. When he thrust inside her they both moaned in union, and I rubbed my clit just a little bit faster. He started out slowly but with force and with every thrust into her her boobs would jolt forward. Eventually the girl started screaming and the guy increased his pace making her bury her face in the armrest. She screamed for more, and just when I thought he couldn't go any faster he proved me wrong, he bent over her slightly and drove into her with so much force that I could even feel it. I pushed two fingers inside my pussy and rubbed my clit faster, tilting back my head I moaned. I felt the heat in my lower body building and the near explosion was so close I could taste it. The guy on the video started moaning also as he pulled the lady's hair and she screamed. I was on the brink by now, just a few more minutes and I would be there. Then all of a sudden click and my door was being opened.

"Damn it all to hell!" I hiss to myself. I forgot to lock it! I pull my hand out of my pants and look up to find my brother looking down at me with a smirk.

"I'm guessing you didn't hear me yelling 'Any body here?'" he said with a teasing tone. I ignored my embarrassed feeling and jumped up to hug him. He smiled on contact and squeezed me tight. Not noticing that the video was still playing and the couple was still going at it like wild animals, I pulled back and smiled. He glanced at the screen, where all insanity I'm sure had been released, and just smiled even more.

"Wow I had no idea you were into porn." he said.

"I...I'm n-not. I mean not really. I....it was just on my computer when I turned it on and....Don't look at me like that!" I blushed and ran over to my computer to turn off the video, just as the man cummed all over the girl's face.

"Nice facial." my brother said as he hovered over me. For some reason I panicked. I pushed the stop button and the video stopped on the picture of the girl with the creamy white liquid all over her mouth and a little on her forehead and eyelashes, the girl's mouth was wide open which held more cum. Jeez how much of a load did this guy have?! The girl had just a small smile as her mouth was open too. Me and my brother both just looked at the frozen video for a few seconds, then I looked up at him and he looked down at me. I could tell that we both were thinking the same thing, but just was waiting for the other to make the first move. Of course it was him, its always him, he leaned down and kissed me and grabbing one of my boobs at the same time. I leaned back in the chair while he stood behind me caressing my boobs. He reached down and pulled my shirt up and over my head, then unclasped my bra. Throwing both items to the floor he pulled me up into his arms and hoisted me around his waist and just carried me like I weighed nothing over to my bed. Quickly he made a trip over to my door to lock it and then jumped back in bed next to me. I headed straight for his zipper of course. As soon as I freed him I smiled. I grabbed hold of his erection and cupped his balls with my other hand. I felt him shift beneath me with impatience. I licked the tip of him just enough to make him squirm some more, then I took him in my mouth. The sound of his groan and soothing the back of my head made my task seem even more urgent. I needed him, but I wanted to please him more, he tasted so damn good. I licked and caressed his shaft with my lips and tongue, taking in as much as possible, then releasing him oh-so-slowly. I tasted of his pre-cum on my tongue sparked sensations in me that I didn't know existed by just giving head.

"God baby. I'm gonna lose it." he said through gritted teeth. I encircled the base of his shaft with my fingers and stroked him faster, the tension in me growing as I sensed him nearing his own climax. I felt his dick seem to shudder and his balls tightened, suddenly he grabbed hold of my shoulders and pulled me up his body and kissed me roughly but passionately.

"Don't!" he managed to groan past my lips. I watched sweat bead up on his forehead and chest as he clenched his eyes closed, trying not to cum. When he regained most of his control, he rolled me over on my back and kissed me again.

"That was too damn close baby." he chuckled a little. I smiled up at him.

"Sorry..."

"Don't be. I just didn't think I would get that close that quick. But I think that's just with you Tink." he beamed down at me and he rubbed me through my pants. He pulled my pants, along with my panties, off and onto the floor. He looked down at me for a while, then he parted my folds and stroked his thumb across my clit. I gasped and arched against him, aching for more. Using my own wetness for lubrication, he continued to stroke and fondle, varying the speed and pressure of his touch, until I was dancing on the very edge of release, my whole body quivering. He leaned down and kissed me at the same time he plunged two fingers inside me, while his thumb continued to stroke my clit. I moved my hips in rhythm of his onslaught. I soon found myself teetering on the edge, I pulled at his hair as he quickened his pace. Then I was cumming hard, my muscles tensing around him and my body flooding with warmth and weightlessness. I looked up at him as he licked one of his fingers clean, I grabbed his hand before he licked the other and licked it clean too.

"Well I think that's an exquisite taste right there. What about you?" he asked.

"It tastes okay but you taste better." I grinned at him. He grabbed my hips and pulled closer to his erection.

"Think you can handle it this time?" I teased.

"Hahaha. You're so fucking funny." He punctuated the sentence with a thrust deep inside me. My eyes lost focus as he began to move with firm, sure strokes. He licked his thumb and brought it to rest on my hard bud again, I moaned at contact. Arching against him, my hands found the nearest pillow and I squeezed it. I saw him look down at me clenching the pillow and he leaned down and whispered in my ear.

"Why clench the pillow? Just take it out on me." And with that I turned the torture I was letting loose on the pillow onto Adrian. My nails dug into the skin of his shoulders, gentle at first, but then he slid one hand under my bottom and lifted me up, pumping harder and faster. With his thumb against my clit and his dick pumping inside me, hitting against my g-spot with each delicious thrust, my nails dug deeper, drawing beads of blood. I heard him groan louder than ever as he lowered his head in pain and pleasure mixed. I could feel myself slipping, my muscles started clench and tighten around him, and his groans became louder. I continued the scalding digging of my nails on his back, and he continued to drive deeper into me, and rapidly stroking my clit. All I could think was 'Please cum. I'm so close.' Finally I slipped off the edge into bliss.

"Ad-rian!" I screamed, my whole body quivering and clenching up, as I rode wave after wave of pleasure. Then I heard him cry out my name and slammed into me, and I felt his cum seep into me. Struggling to breathe he let his forehead fall against my forehead and smiled down at me. Closing our eyes we savored the aftershocks of pleasure as it continued to buzz from our lower bodies up to our head. Finally he rolled off and laid next to me, draping me over his chest and kissed my forehead.

"I love you so much Tink." he panted.

"I love you more Adrian aka Peter Pan." I whispered back. With that he laughed and kissed me again before we drifted off into dream world, where we fucked each other senseless there too.

Second story. I know everyone who loved my last one has been waiting for this one. So comment and rate. Let me know how good or bad I did okay? Thanks
