Uncle catches nephew in lingerie

It all started at a young age of 11. I started wearing my moms panties and as I got older it turned into more than a device to jack off.

I started to buy my own things with the money I earned at my after school job. I went all out, panties, bras, hose, thigh highs, skirts, blouses, heels, you name it.

One particular weekend my parents had gone out of town and my uncle who was staying with us at the time had gone with them, or so I thought.

I thought I had the whole house to myself for the weekend to dress up and do whatever I want.

Friday night arrives and I get dressed in my sexiest white satin string bikini panties, white bra, slip on some black crotchless pantyhose, a red silky one piece skirt and top and my blonde wig and black heels.

I look at myself in the mirror and apply my make up, after I am done I am totally transformed into my beautiful alter ego.

I am about to go out for a drive, I grab my purse and my car keys and head toward the door, as I start to open it, it opens from the other side.

Startled, I jump back and my Uncle jumps a bit and just stays for like five minutes, he then starts to smile and he says "I knew you always were like this, I've seen you wear panties before"

I said "when have you seen me?" and he tells me he would sneak into my room at night while I was asleep and jerk off over my panty covered ass.

I said "so our suspicions were true, you are gay" and he replies "well, lets see how gay I am".

With that he walks over to me and plants a big kiss right on my ruby red lips, slipping his tongue past my lips and down my throat.

I oblige, meeting his tongue with mine, as he presses his body up against mine, I can feel his cock growing in his pants.

He asks me if he can take me to dinner and I say "sure".

We go to a private place, dimly lit and enjoy a nice meal.

The whole time he is sitting next to me, running his hands up and down my legs and under my skirt, copping a feel of my hard cock in my panties.

He has me hot and bothered now, he pays for dinner and as soon as we get in the car, I reach over and unzip his pants, I tell him to start driving and I bend down and take his erect cock into my mouth.

I suck his cock for the twenty minute ride home,we park in the driveway and run into the house.

Both of us horny as hell and ready to go.

We head upstairs to my parents room,where they have a king size bed and he just throws me down and says "I'm going to fuck you like I fucked your mom on this bed".

This got me even hotter and ready for him.

He rips his clothes off,I don't have a chance to remove mine,he jumps in the bed,lifts the dress a little,slides my panties to one side and slams his cock into my awaiting ass.

I moan loudly as he penetrates my ass all the way to his balls,he slowly pumps in and out of me all the while kissing me,making me feel like a real girl.

He starts to fuck me a little harder now and starts talking a little more dirty,turning me on.

'First your moms pussy,now her son's ass".

My hips moving to his thrusts,I say that "I hope I am as good a fuck as my mom".

and he replies "better".

He starts moaning louder and louder and his pace gets to a feverish pitch,when he suddenly pulls out.

He pulls out and shoots a huge load all over my red silky dress and it runs down the side quickly onto my moms sheets.

He lays down beside me and he falls asleep.

I get up to go change and climb into my own bed and think what a great night this was.

We spent all day and all night Saturday putting me in different outfits and fucking all day and night.

He eventually started lending me out to his friends and clients for some nights when they were in town and I pleased them as much as I pleased my Uncle.
