We spent the entire day in Milo's room. Milo and I fucked as Carrie masturbated on the bed. Milo and Carrie would fuck and I would be the one masturbating. Then there were times when all three of us were wrapped up fucking and screaming and having the most incredible experiences. As much as I want to tell you about the rest of that night, I am not going to. What I plan to tell you about now is what happened a few days following our special day.

Milo's parents were not lying. They were home bright and early the next day. We were relieved that we had moved back to Carrie's room and we did not have to explain why we were Milo's in room. Crap part of this all was though that they brought back Susan, who was their fathers sister. She had been having some marital problems and she got to sleep now on the couch, the one in Carrie's room. Talk about ruining my summer.

So they had been home for a few days and we had been being good. We went to bed when we were supposed to and followed all of the rules. Tonight however, we could not control ourselves. We needed to be fucked and torn apart and Milo was our only hope at this point, since it was not safe to play together in Carrie's room. We thought about fucking in the bathroom, by we figured it would be more fun in Milo's room anyways.

That night after the parents and Susan had gone to be, we laid there, our plan getting ready to take place. It was not long before Susan was snoring away on the sofa. Once we knew she was completely asleep, we made our escape from the room and quietly made our way to Milo's door. I thought about knocking but I decided to just walk in.

Milo was laying back on his bed reading what looked to be a comic book. He looked up at us as we entered the room, and knowing what was about to come, he lifted the covers for us to curl up with me. Carrie curled up on one side and I curled up on the other. He wrapped his arms around us both and we laid our heads on his chest, listening to the sound of his heart and watching the rise and fall motions.

"Its about time you girls came to visit me," he said happily but quietly, "I have really been starting to miss the both of you."

He kissed us both on the top of our heads while his hand massaged our backs. I wrapped my legs around on of his and pressed up against him. I did not know what was going on, on Carrie's side, but I wanted him so badly.

His hand moved down my back and played with the outer lining of my panties, causing me to wrap my legs tighter around his.

I reached over across his chest and began to rub Carrie's breasts, slowly but firmly. She let out soft moans and leaned back to give me better access. Milo turned toward me and lifted me onto him and placed me in the middle of him and Carrie.

I continued to play with Carrie's breasts as Milo pulled down my panties from behind. He let his hand wonder, playing with my ass and then slowly sliding two of his fingers into my dripping wet pussy. I moaned loudly and pushed back against his fingers, getting them deeper inside of me.

Every time he pushed them into me, I would squeeze down on Carrie's breasts a little harder. She let out a moan every time. Her fingers begin to wonder down my body as I began to lick and suck and bite at them.

Carrie's finger found themselves at my naked pussy, which was being fingered currently by her brother. She smiled at me as she ran her finger between my pussy lips and pushed against my clit with her small amazing fingers.

Carrie began to rub my clit harder and faster as Milo slammed his fingers deep inside of me.

"Fuck," I screamed, getting closer and closer to my orgasm. Milo took my words literally and pulled his fingers out of me. Before I had time to think about it, he slammed his cock all the way into my dripping wet pussy. I began to scream as my orgasm hit, but Carrie muffled the sounds by pressing her lips tightly to mine.

Milo changed our position, placing me on my back, my legs up on his shoulders as he fucked me fast and hard. Milo had gotten better at his time over these past few days, now he could go forever, he had to having two girls to please.

As Milo fucked my pussy hard, Carrie decided to climb on top of my face. I pulled her panties aside with my nose and pushed my tongue up against her nice wet pussy entrance. I worked my tongue around it and she began to grind down on my face. I was being taken care of at both ends and I was in complete bliss.

We continued what we were doing for a few minutes when once against there was a panicked stop. I remember what it felt like from the other day in the shower when Carrie had walked in on Milo and I. This time however, I could not see, being as Carrie's nice round ass was blocking my view. Just to be on the safe side again though, I moved my legs down and wrapped them around Milo's waist so that he could not pull out of me.

"Daddy," Carrie's voice cried as she quickly crawled off of my face and tried to hide herself under the covers. I looked over at her father and could not help but smile. The wheels in my head were turning once again, though this time, I did not have the assurance in my mind that things were going to go my way.

"Dad this isn't what," Milo began again, getting ready to say exactly what he had tried to tell Carrie. I tightened my legs around him though and he shut up.

I began to push down around Milo's cock. He had a look of confusion, mixed with pleasure on his face. I could tell that he was scared but that he did not want to have to take his cock out of me either. I was not going to let him though, even if he did.

Looking over I locked eyes with Mr. Hudson, as I pushed back and forth against his son's cock. I let small moans escape my mouth.

Looking away from his eyes and down at his cock I could tell that he was getting hard. He tried to hide it with one of his hands, but there was no hiding a hard on like he was developing. I decided maybe my idea was not going to be so hard to accomplish after all.

Mr. Hudson did not say anything. I could tell he wanted to protest what was taking place, but his cock was so hard he could not think straight. He just looked me over as I fucked my pussy around his son's rock hard cock. I could tell the thrill in this was making Milo even more excited than he had been a little while ago.

"Well," I said to Mr. Hudson, looking between him and his children. "You going to join in or are you going to get the fuck out so we can finish."

There was panic in my head, my heart was beating faster than it ever had. I could hear it echoing and thumping in my chest. I could not believe I had said something like that to their dad.

I looked over at Mr. Hudson with nervous eyes. He began to make his way over to the bed but stopped right at the edge. I knew that he wanted to play with us and I was going to give him what he wanted.

I let go of Milo and pulled myself off of him. "Carrie lay down," I said in a demanding tone. She did as I said and laid down on the bed, right next to where I had been laying. I then helped Milo over to her and worked his cock into her very soaked pussy. He began to thrust in and out of her, his eyes moving away from his dad as he got back into the rhythm of what he wanted to be doing and that was fucking his sister.

I left the two to fuck as I moved over to Mr. Hudson. He looked around me as he watched his two children fucking one another, but his eyes fell back upon me the closer I got to him.

"Take your pants off." I said to him in the demanding tone I had used with Carrie a few moments ago. He did just as I said and slid his pajama pants down around his ankles. He was not wearing anything under them and this made me excited.

I got down on my hands and knees on the bed and took his cock into my mouth. It was hard and bigger than Milo's but only by about an inch.

I slowly worked the head of his cock into my mouth, rolling my tongue around it. It was not until I heard the sound of Carrie reaching her first orgasm of the night that I got overly excited and took his whole cock into my mouth. I fucked his cock for the longest time, taking it down my throat, licking up and down the shaft and sucking on the head. He moaned loudly as I did these things and I could feel my juices dripping down my legs.

After a while he pushed my head away from his cock and forced me to turn around. I could see Milo behind me, he had already pulled out of Carrie and she was now licking his cock. I moved down and began to lick his cock as well. I could taste Carrie all over his cock and this made me even more excited.

My licking stopped when Mr. Hudson pushed the head of his cock into me. I let out a small moan and a light wimper. Even though Mr. Hudson's cock was not that much longer than Milo's it was much thicker. I had never had a cock as thick as his inside of me and the feeling of him slowly sliding in and stretching me out sent me over the edge.

Just as my orgasm had hit its peak, Mr. Hudson slammed his cock into me all the way. I screamed and my mouth pushed down around Milo's cock, taking it all the way in. I quickly and out of control like I sucked Milo's cock as his dad pounded into my hot dripping wet pussy. There was not a moment when one of their cocks was not deep inside of me.

Carrie laid down on the bed beside Milo watching what was happening to me. She began to rub at her pussy, the thrill of watching her daddy and her brother fucking her best friend from both ends.

Milo began to fuck up into my mouth and his breathing was getting heavier. I knew that he was getting ready to cum so I began to suck on his cock faster. As I did this, Mr. Hudson grabbed a hold of my hips and began to thrust into my in hard quick thrusts and I knew he was getting ready to cum as well.

“Oh shit, I am going to cum,” Milo moaned loudly. I pushed his cock all the way into my mouth, letting his cum hit the back of my throat, making it easier for me to swallow every last drop of his hot sticky cum. It was at the moment that I felt something hot and wet against my back. I then realized that Mr. Hudson had pulled out of me and had cum all over my back.

I pulled Milo’s cock out of my mouth and collapsed against the bed, my head between Carrie’s legs. She ran her fingers through my hair and let me lick her fingers off. Milo laid down beside me, out of breath and breathing hard.

I looked down to see Mr. Hudson pulling up his pajama pants. “Go to bed kids, its late,” he said as if that was all that he had come in here to do. He then left the room, leaving me wanting more of him.
