Too Horny For Words

I was diagnosed with type one diabetes on August 28th 2010. I honestly don't really care. I have my daddy who fucks me good to make the pain go away, and my boyfriend Josh, who fucks me in my ass just right. All I need now is a third dick in my mouth for I can have my own three car garage. Unfortunately, my blood sugars run in the 300's which is high according to my doctor. I cannot see how that is possible. I am getting enough exercise since I'm getting fucked twice a day by Josh and Daddy. Having two dicks in my tummy should be my exercise for the day, but I guess it is not. My adorable daddy and my sexy boyfriend Josh have both agreed to send me to a diabetic camp called Camp Horn. It is a diabetic camp for children ages 6-18.

By the way, my name is Paige Ace. I am 17 years old, 5 ft 1 (which my daddy and Bf call me fun-size) long, natural, brown hair, half black, half white skin color that makes any boy want to come closer, I am a size 6 with big hips, a nice ass, but I do not understand why boys like that so much and C34 boobs. Yah, I am a total tease. My daddy was the first to fuck me and then my boyfriend, Josh. I have been with Josh for 3 months and this will be the first time we have been apart from each other for more than 8 days, but it is worth it to take control of my health.

My boyfriend and daddy enter in my cabin for ages 16-19. They drop me off at my cabin and unpack my clothes next to my bunk bed.

My daddy says to me, "Bye Bye baby girl, I'll miss you so much." daddy says. Then he gives me a big hug and rubs my pussy lips. Oh my goodness, that made me so wet.

Then Josh gives me a hug, and a firm kiss. I could not, but to put my hands in his pants to give him a good bye hand job. He starts to moan a little but I push my lips against his lips so hard, nobody could hear him moan.

"JOSH! We have to go!" my daddy says loudly.

I pull my hand out of Josh's pants. I give him a kiss and whisper in his ear, "Bye baby boy, can't wait to fuck you in three weeks." He wobbles out of the cabin since I had to leave him with blue balls. Such a sham, I really wanted him to finger me.

As the first day progresses, I notice I have a wet spot in my pink, polka dotted, white panties during dinner. "I need to cum." I say to myself.

I have to consider, who can I play with for the next three weeks? As I walk out of the lodge for I can take a look at the boys in the camp. "Yah, there all cute but I do not need a boy, I need a man." I say to myself.

I notice the head counselor for Hillcrest cabin which is for boys, 16-19 walking to the basketball court. His name is Counselor Greg, my pussy's soul mate. He is at 6ft 1, 195 pounds, A firm 6 pack filled with good definition, short blond hair, he does have a little hair on his face which is not allowed for counselors to have and a good tan. Yep, he looks like the perfect guy for my pussy can have a release. The only problem is, how am I going to get him to notice me?

All I know is, he teaches hiking 1st and 2nd period, swimming 3rd period and water park 4th and 5th period. I intend to take the same classes he teaches.

The following day, I have my eyes on him during hiking class. I must have him somehow, but I do not know how to be sexy but inconspicuous. I cannot wait any longer, I need sex now! After seeing him with his shirt off during swimming class, which made me finger myself in the restroom, I have to get him to fuck me now.

During lunch, I see Greg helping a child check his blood sugar in the lodge. "Aw, he is so sweet. He rather help a child then eat." I say to myself while I am eating lunch. Wait, I got it! I know how I am going to seduce him.

After Greg finally eats, he goes outside and plays tennis with the younger campers. I follow him, tap him on his shoulder with huff and a small cry. I say "Greg, I don't feel good."

He knells on my level and says "What's wrong Paige, is your blood sugar low?" He says truly concerned.

"I...I...I..." I fall onto Greg, pretending I'm extremely sick. He picks me up and carries me to the medical station in the lodge. His arms are so comfortable. He is also relaxing to lay on and stunning to look at. I honestly almost pass out for real because he is so sexy. Greg lays me down on the floor, he gently lifts my fingers to his palm and he checks my blood sugar. I pretend I have passed out but I have one eye open for I can admire his body.

About thirty seconds later, he wakes me up and tells me, "Paige, your blood sugar was low, 67 to be exact, but not low enough to pass out like you did. Are you okay?"

I say a weak, fragile tone, "Yes sir I'm okay. Thank you for taking care of me." I stand up and give him a kiss on the cheek.

Greg says, "Aw, well thank you Paige. Come on, we need to get you back to your cabin, because lunch is over."

"Ok then, but first, can you walk me to the restroom, Please, Please Please...?" I say in a begging tone.

"Ok, let's go." Greg says.

"Yay, thank you" I give him another kiss on the cheek.

He blushes while we walk to the restroom. I bet it is because he has not received that type of attention for a girl in a while. After all, he has been working at a camp 30 miles away from the nearest town.

He walks me to the restroom and says, "Ok Paige, be done in 5 minutes."

"Okay then" I say flirty. However, I take all my clothes off except my panties which are soaking wet from my pussy juice.

"Oh Grey... can you come in her please?" I say a little bit too flirty. Greg cautiously walks in. His jaw drop at the sight of my titties which are hard and ready.

I say, "Do you like my body Greg?"

Grey says, "I.... I don't know what to say."

I push him to the ground, sit on his lap, and say, "This is all for you Greg if you want it."

Greg mumbles, "Well uh..."

“Shhhh, it's ok Greg. I will make you happy if you let me.” I say seductively

I grind on his leg slowly at first but I pick up the pace in no time. I pull Greg's pants down and suck on his dick. This is what he has been missing since he can't get sex since he is at summer camp, until today.

“Oh Greg, your dick is so big and juicy.”

“Well thank you princess.” I keep sucking on his dick on the floor until I can get the juices flowing.

Greg says, “Stop.” I stop with a unhappy look on my face.

Greg lays me on the floor rips off my panties and slides his dick inside me. His dick is so long and big. I can feel it in my tummy. He pushes his dick in me harder and faster than my daddy and Josh ever have.

I scream out “Oh, baby, do me, do me, do me, do me!”

He yells, “I bet you like that you little cunt?”

We keep going for a good 15 minutes until...

We both climax at the same time.

I fall on top of his abs and fall asleep.

10 minutes later, we wash up at the sink and put our clothes on.

I tell him “You know we didn't use a condom right?”

Greg says, “I don't care, as long as I am able to fuck you, I am good.”

I am so happy right now. I'm happy because I can get sex whenever I want and I have a fuck buddy for the rest of the camp session.
