I wasn't sure what to say. He said he would never be mad at me. So I just told him.

"Earlier, Jessica and I were talking," I said.

"OK, what about?" Jeff asked.

"Just promise you won't get mad. It's not a big deal I don't think anyway. And remember we just had great sex," I replied.

"OK, what is it?" Jeff asked.

Then I another deep breath.

"Well Jessica and I were talking about you earlier. Let's just say we're both interested in you. So we were talking about how I wanted to be with you and she came up with the idea of me asking you to play truth or dare. To see what happened. If you could possibly be interested," I replied.

"So, you just wanted to test me, and see what happens? Did you have a back up plan in case I wasn't so nice and wouldn't do anything for you?" Jeff asked.

"Well I wasn't so into the idea. I thought it be better to just tell you, at some point in time. But now we really love each other. I want it to go on. But do you want it with me?" I asked.

"Of course I do Jill," Jeff replied.

Then he kissed me right in front of Jessica. But I think we were getting her a little horny.

"Well I must say you are getting me a little jealous now Jill," Jessica said.

“Would you like to see his dick?” I asked.

“Yes,” Jessica replied.

Then I pulled the blanket off him and she got a quick glimpse of it.

“Holy shit, you were right Jill, it is huge. Damn Jeff. I don't know which one of you is more lucky honestly,” Jessica said.

Then I felt a little bad for her. She was truly interested in him.

“Can you give us a minute Jessica?” I asked.

“Sure,” Jessica replied.

Then she left.

“Well I know we just had sex for the first time. But she really interested in you. Would you be interested in having a threesome?” I asked.

“Holy shit, this is my very lucky day. But this isn't a test, is it?” Jeff asked.

“No. You said you'd do anything for me. You even had sex with me because I fell in love with you. But she is my best friend in the world. And she is interested in you, so I wanna do this for her. She'll fucking love it. I guarantee it,” I replied.

“Just promise me you'll still love me the same way you do now when we're done,” Jeff said.

Then I kissed him once again.

“I swear. I wanna be with you forever. And I know it's every guys fantasy to be with two ladies at once. I know you'll love it too,” I replied.

“So I won't lose you if I really enjoy it?” Jeff asked.

“You won't ever lose me. We got each other and we're gonna stay together, now and forever,” I replied.

“OK if you are sure,” Jeff said.

“Would you feel better if I dared you to do it with me?” I asked.

He thought about it for a minute.

“Yeah I think I'd feel better if you dared me, that's how we started,” Jeff replied.

“OK I dare you to have a threesome with us. I know you'll love it. You think she is really sexy,” I said.

“I can't argue with that,” Jeff replied.

Then we kissed again and I went over to the door. I opened it, completely naked and saw she was by the bathroom.

“Jessica come here,” I said.

She saw me completely naked, but still came to the bedroom with us. I sat down and she came in. She took a good look at me.

“In a totally non lesbian way, you are hot Jill,” Jessica said.

Then I stood up once again and came over to her.

“So in a totally non lesbian way?” I asked.

“Yes,” Jessica replied.

“Well that's too bad Jessica. I've always thought you were hot too,” I said just before I kissed her.

Then Jeff got to see me kiss another beautiful woman. I wasn't lying to her. I always did think was hot. Probably not so much in a lesbian way, but when you are horny and love to do things for friends and family, you'll do just about anything for them.

“Would you like to join us Jessica?” I asked as I had my left hand on her boobs.

Then just like what I did to Jeff, it worked even faster. Then I took her hand and she got on the bed with us. She sat in between us. We both took one of her hands.

“So I hear you are into me?” Jeff asked Jessica.

“Yes I'm Jeff,” Jessica replied.

“Yeah at least twice I knew she was spying on me. But I let it go. A few weeks ago and a few days ago too,” Jeff said.

Then I thought about that for a minute. I didn't spy on him a few days ago.

“I didn't spy on you a few days ago,” I said.

“Well if that wasn't you then who was it?” Jeff asked.

Then Jessica just had a embarrassed grin on her face.

“Oh you horny bitch. You seriously spied on him too?” I asked.

“Yes, I came looking for you in here, but you weren't here. Then someone came in, I assumed it was you, so I was gonna scare you once you came in here. But whoever it was, they just went directly to the bathroom for a shower. I got impatient and decided to wait for you in the living room. But then I noticed his car outside. So I hid in his closet and spied on him. And it's a lot nicer up close Jeff,” Jessica explained.

Then Jeff and I were a little stunned.

“You horny lady. I didn't see that coming. Well are you ready?” I asked.

“Yes, never more ready,” Jessica replied.

Then Jessica and I started making out as Jeff and I started feeling her up. I never felt another woman's breasts before honestly. But I always had a thing for her for some reason. Jessica and I started wrapping our arms around each other tightly as we were making out passionately. Then we both stood up and our lips didn't separate. Jeff got down on his knees facing Jessica and kissed her stomach.

“Come on Jeff, strip her already. I never got to see her naked before and she can me naked right now,” I said.

Then he quickly undid her pants. He pulled them down along with the blue thong she was wearing.

“Oh that sexy blue thong, I like that,” I said.

Then we were just making out as Jeff started licking Jessica's nice pussy. I took off her shirt and her bra as well. I took a good look down at her nice C-cup boobs. They were just about the same size as mine.

“And you really have had a small thing for me too this whole time?” Jessica asked.

“Yes. Do you ever look at yourself naked? You are stunning. I think I'm like just lesbian for you right now,” I replied.

Then we both pushed our boobs together. But that gave Jeff little room to eat Jessica out. But he still managed to make her feel good. She couldn't help but belt out some nice moans. She put her hands onto his head and made him stick his tongue deep in there.

“Holy shit Jill. You truly are one lucky bitch. He has some fucking tongue,” Jessica said.

“Have you ever eaten a woman out before Jessica?” I asked.

“I can't say I have honestly. Are you daring me to?” Jessica asked.

“Jessica truth or dare?” I asked.

“Dare,” Jessica asked.

“I dare you to eat me out,” I replied.

Then Jessica pushed me onto the bed. Jessica started eating me out. But that didn't stop Jeff from making Jessica feel good as well. So he got on his back as started eating her out. We had a train going on there. Jessica said that she never had been with another woman, but her pussy licking skills said otherwise.

“Holy fucking shit Jessica, that feels good. Stick that tongue inside your best friend's pussy, deep for me,” I said.

Then she began to spread out my pussy lips as far as they would go. That itself felt amazing. Then she stuck his tongue into my pussy. She began moving it around all inside my pussy and made me scream.

“Oh shit!” I screamed.

Jeff had his tongue going in and out of Jessica's pussy as he had his hands on her butt as he was spanking her.

“Oh Jeff. I don't think your sister would like you doing that,” Jessica said.

“I'll let it slide this time,” I replied.

We all laughed for a minute and I put my hands onto her head as she was using both hands to spread out my nice pussy lips. Along with her tongue she also put in his fingers to intensify all the pleasure. Then I was really screaming.

“Fuck Jessica. Make me cum. Make your best friend cum a river,” I screamed.

“I will Jill. But don't make us go deaf though,” Jessica replied.

I didn't answer her. I just put her face back into my pussy once again. Then I felt her face getting very sweaty. Her first time with another woman was going well. She was licking it and was working hard to make me cum. I think being a woman, she knew how she wanted to be fucked, so maybe that's how she made me have an orgasm that big.

“Oh shit Jessica. I'm gonna explode everywhere now!” I screamed.

Then she got away a bit and I had another huge orgasm. Not quite as big as the one Jeff gave me, but still pretty big to say the least. Then Jessica climbed on top of me. We started making out once again. But I broke the kiss.

“Jeff, truth or dare?” I asked.

“Truth,” Jeff replied.

“If I dared you to get a condom and put it on to ram Jessica, would you do it?” I asked.

“I gotta say yeah, I would,” Jeff replied.

“Jeff I dare you to get a condom and ram me like you did her,” Jessica said.

Then he got a condom from his room. He came back and put it on. I got down the floor with him and got on my knees as he inserted his dick into Jessica doggie style.

“Oh shit Jeff, that's good,” Jessica said.

He started thrusting his dick into her deep and made her moan as well. Then I started kissing him on the lips. He brought me really close to him and we hugged each other. And he put one of his hands onto my boobs.

“Seriously sis, you have a fantastic rack. I fucking love it,” Jeff said.

Then I got behind him and I hugged him. My breasts pressed up against him nicely. Then truth be told I was feeling a little jealous already. But I didn't let it show too much. Then I got on the other side of them. Jessica leaned up as far as she could and Jessica and I started making out passionately. Jeff wrapped his arms around both of us and held us with Jessica in the middle. Jessica and I kissed a few times and Jeff and I kissed each other a few times over Jessica's shoulder as well.

“Yeah make out with your sister, she is very sexy,” Jessica said.

“She is right about that,” I replied.

Then we all laughed once again. Jeff pulled out of Jessica and got up on the bed. Then I got on top of him cowgirl style. And Jessica got right over him as well with her pussy right over his mouth. Then Jessica and I started kissing each other again as Jeff started eating Jessica out once again. I leaned down and started licking her nipples. I was really pleased at the time, but I was still feeling a little jealous though.

“Oh shit, I'm riding you like mad Jeff. Put your hands on my tits now,” I said.

So he did and he started squeezing them. I put my hands right over his hands as I began bouncing up and down. Even though it was only the second time we had sex, I knew the sex would never ever get old. We both loved each other. And having sex with Jessica too was good physically, I wasn't feeling the best emotionally though. Then he really started moaning a great deal.

“Oh shit, now I'm gonna explode,” Jeff said.

So we both got down with him. I ripped off the condom and I started stroking his cock. And he came like fountain for us as we both had our tongues out. Then after a minute, we both laid down with him as he was in the middle of us. We all kissed each other a few times as well.

"Well, that was beyond great," Jessica said.

"You don't gotta tell us twice," Jeff replied.

"Well, Jessica can you give us a few minute please?" I asked.

She wasn't sure what I meant by that, but she agreed.

"Sure. I think I might lay down. Do you mind if I walk around naked?" Jessica asked.

"Sure, just don't make a habit of it though," I replied.

"OK then," Jessica said.

Then she left completely naked still.

"Something wrong sis?" Jeff asked.

Then we both leaned up and kissed once.

"I just really love you Jeff. I know that was my idea, but just promise me if I come up with that idea again, say no," I said.

"OK sweetheart. Are you jealous, even though it was just a one time thing?" Jeff asked.

"Maybe a little. But you are absolutely sure you feel the same way about me now?" I asked.

Then we kissed again as he wrapped his arms around me.

"Absolutely. You are the nicest, sweetest and sexiest woman on the planet. Even though you are my sister, you don't get to decide who you fall in love with. It's chosen for you most times. You fall in love with your sister after she falls in love with you," Jeff replied.

"Can I just ask you one more thing?" I asked.

"What is it?" Jeff asked.

"Can you promise to do your best not to break my heart. I've never loved anyone like this before honestly. I don't know what I'd do if things were messed up between us," I replied.

“I promise you angel, I'll do my best. You have meant everything to me since our parents died. I'll love you forever Jill. And that's a promise. Can you promise me that too?” Jeff asked.

“Yes of course,” I replied.

Then we hugged each other and cuddled for a little while. Then Jessica came back in.

“Well, I'm gonna go, it looks like you two have some stuff to talk about. Call me tomorrow, or tonight if you want Jill. See you later,” Jessica said.

“See you later, we might be busy tonight, but tomorrow I'll call you,” I replied.

“OK see you both later then,” Jessica said.

“See you later Jessica,” we both replied.

Then she left.

“You wanna do it again?” I asked.

“Do you mind if we talk first though?” Jeff asked.

“About what?” I asked.

“Our future,” Jeff replied.
