I meet an older woman who wants just one thing...

I received an email one evening from a lady that was 58 years of age from the adult web site, at the time I was 40 years of age. She had requested that we become intimate friends and felt we should get to know each other. Being a gentleman I graciously replied after checking out her profile. This lady looked fine, she was a natural blonde, average build, and large breasts, every man's dream. I was pretty lucky because she was already online waiting for my reply. Immediately after she received my acceptance, she contacted me and we began a video chat. She introduced herself as Anne and told me that she only liked getting fucked with no commitments, which is cool with me too. Anne and I had chats for the next week and we made arrangements to get together the following weekend.

It is a two hour drive to get to the destination to meet Anne. I am excited to meet her mainly because she will be the oldest woman I have had a sexual opportunity with and it was a fantasy of mine. I arrive at the hotel and I give Anne a call to let her know I have arrived, she excitedly replies that she will meet me in the parking lot shortly. Anne arrives twenty minutes later and we go in to register a room. After we go to the room, we head into town to pick up some booze and munchies. For a lady Anne's age she is looking very nice, she is tall with an hourglass figure. Her breasts are very large for a lady her size, but I don't mind that at all.

We work our way back into the hotel room, where we sit down have a few drinks and relax. Anne has beautiful blue eyes and she portrays herself as a fun loving lady, as well as being full of life. After a few drinks Anne looks at me and asks me to strip down for her, which I do in a teasing manner. Anne is in awe and strips down in the same manner, which I gaze at her in satisfaction and pleasure. Anne's hourglass body with firm natural 48dd breasts was amazing, this lady was in very good shape. Her body was the match of a woman in her thirties.

Anne and I lay down on the bed admiring and teasingly caressing each other's body. Anne looks at me and says, "Fuck me right now. I don't want any foreplay -- that will happen later." She slips a condom on my hard cock asks me to lay down and climbs on top of me. Anne grabs my cock and slowly guides it into her wet tight pussy. She eases me my cock deep inside and sits there gently rolling herself on it. She leans over towards me and whispers, "It is perfect, I love long thick cocks." I caress her large firm breasts and begin kissing each breast around the nipple and teasingly lick the tips of each nipple. Anne starts riding my cock like a mad woman screaming and moaning like she is going crazy.

I have never seen or had a woman hurling herself in such a realm of pleasure, it was rather intimidating. She was slamming her pussy over my cock so hard that our pelvic bones felt like they were crushing. When she finally made me ejaculate she immediately pulled my condom off and started sucking my cock into submission.

Anne and I then took a break and had another couple of drinks. Anne lays down on the bed and ask me if I am ready to go again. I see Anne's pussy for the first time and it is the most beautiful, clean shaved, and so pink, perfectly pink. I can't help myself I have to go down on her pussy. I begin lick her clit and then insert my tongue inside her. The taste is so clean and fresh I just want to lick it forever, but Anne wants more cock. I slip a condom on and climb on top of her inserting my cock deep inside her. Anne screams in pleasure and begins humping me like she is in an exorcism, this lady is unreal. Again she brings me to ejaculation and again she pulls my condom off and sucks my cock into submission.

We stop have a few more drinks and start all over again. Anne and I fucked the entire night away and every time she was just as wild as the first time. She was the wildest woman I have ever had a sexual encounter with and the one and only one night I have ever had. Would I do it again with her, yes I would have, but I have never seen or heard from her after that night. I can honestly say that my fantasy of mature women was fulfilled in that one night.

Since that night with Anne I met a wonderful woman who is now my wife and the only way I can re-live that experience is if my wife is involved. I myself think that is a great trade off, my wife and a second woman. I am sure there will be more adventures to come.
