It's what I wanted, but not what I expected.

I keep seeing you from afar hoping one day you will notice me. I try to get the courage up to talk to you, but every day it's always the same. We pass by each other every day in the hallway and no matter what I tell myself; I can't get the courage up to say a simple hello. You don't even seem to notice I exist. Today however, is going to be different. I woke up with a new vigor; a new excitement rose up inside of me. I was going to say more than just a simple hello. I got into my closet and picked out my short skirt that went down just past my ass, my shirt that revealed my curves and hugged my tits just right and I took out one of my sexy bras, but I deliberately forgot to grab panties. My plandidn'tneed those to get in the way.

When I walked into the front door of our school that day I immediately locked eyes on you. You once again didn't even seem to notice me. I walked up to you and grabbed you by the hand and led you out the building and around back in to the woods where nobody would hear or notice us. You spun me around and looked at me with a quizzical look on your face.

"What are you doing?" you asked.

"I am finally taking control and not playing the shy girl," I tell you.

"Well damn, it's about time," you told me with a little sarcasm.

I was taken aback. "What did you say?"

"Don't act so surprised. Do you think all those times I bumped into you and brushed my hand across your ass and hips were accidents?" you chuckled.

"Well then why didn't you do anything more, I've been wanting you for a while now," I said sternly.

You tell me, "Because I have been waiting for you to do something about it, I'm a bit of a tease you could say.”

“Well then, let me show you how much of a tease I can be,” I said sarcastically.

Walking up to you, I put my hand on your cock which is big even for it being soft. I kiss you and start to rub my hand over your dick softly barely putting any pressure, but just enough for you to feel. I know because I feel you catch your breath and you tense up a bit. Your hand moves to my ass and you squeeze it tight, kissing me harder. You start moving to the rhythm of my hand on your dick. I can feel your cock getting harder and much bigger than I had expected.

“Wow, bigger than I would have guessed,” I say shocked.

“I hope it’s not too big for you my dear,” you say with a grin.

Without saying yes or no I unzip your pants and pull your cock out of your briefs, squeezing it tightly in my hand. I take the tip in my mouth and begin to tease you with the tip of my tongue, kissing it with my lips. I take a little more of you in sucking a few inches, curving my tongue to your shape. I start bobbing my head up and down, slowly at first then a little quicker. You start to move your hips, pushing your dick deeper in my mouth. Without hesitating I take you all in, deep throating your cock over and over. You grab the back of my head and thrust hard, fucking my mouth, making me gag. Before you have a chance to blow you load down my throat, I stand up, turn around and pull my skirt up, revealing to you that I am wearing no panties. I bend over the nearest tree, pushing my ass up at you, I part my cheeks letting you get a good look at my voluptuous pink pussy I know you are dying to dive into.

“Take me now big boy, I want to feel that giant cock deep inside my tight pussy,” I tell you.

Without another thought you stand behind me and put your dick straight into me. I can’t help but scream out. You’re so fucking huge I can barely handle it; each thrust puts you deeper inside me. You start pounding away at my pussy, harder and faster making me moan.

“I can’t believe...we’re actually...FUCK....doing this,” I say between breaths.

“Believe it because this isn't going to be the last,” you say.

“Oh yes, please cum for me now, I want to feel you cum inside me,” I yell!

Pumping faster and harder you explode deep inside me, feeling the pulsing of your cock as you cum pushes me over the edge and I cum along with you, drenching your cock with my juices. You hold me up from the waist so I don't collapse.

"Can't wait till next time," you whisper in my ear.

I turn around kiss you again and we then proceed to walk back to the school.
