Many weeks passed and Kirsty had enjoyed a very full and varied sex life with her new found paranormal lovers. It had been so long since Kirsty had had visitors or even a night out with friends. Kirsty picked up her mobile phone and dialed Valerie.

“Hey, Val, how’s things?”

“Kirsty, baby, how are you? I’m great. It’s been a while since we have talked, it’s so nice to hear your voice.”

“I’m good thanks, Val. I’ve been very preoccupied of late. But think it’s time we got the girls together and went out on the town!”

“That’s a great idea, Kirsty, let’s party this weekend?”

Kirsty hung up and smiled to herself knowing she had kept her secret on purpose. No one will know my pleasures. I’m such a greedy girl, Kirsty thought to herself. With a sexy look in her eyes she went to her room and lay on the bed.

Moments went by and Kirsty had begun to play with her newly waxed, smooth young pussy when the familiar buzz of smooth electric moved over her body. Her pussy tingled as her back arched and soon she felt a cold electric cock fill her pussy. “Hmmmmmmm,” sounded from her throat.

Who was it this time? Kirsty thought. Not the biggest cock she had taken from all her ghostly lovers but still enough to send her into climax. “Yes, yes, yes,” her words echoed the room as the cold electric fluid filled her for the first time today, as the image of a man shimmered into view. Kirsty smiled as the young man between her thighs was a handsome but rugged muscly young guy in his 20's. Smiling down at her he kept pushing inside her, moving in sync with Kirsty's upward thrusts.

His form took substance and his weight pushed Kirsty's legs open even wider. Her arms wrapped around his body and they kissed. Sparks lit up their lips as they caressed each other until they lay writhing in pure ecstasy, surrounded in a hue of purest blue light.

Kirsty's body was aglow with passion. Suddenly the young man picked up his pace, thrusting bolts of ecstatic electricity through Kirsty's pussy, up through her body to her pert erect nipples. His cock seemed to grow with every thrust, deeper, deeper harder faster.

"Yes, yes, yes, OH FUCK YES," Kirsty screamed out in pure lust.

Her body, now hovering above the bed, wrapped in the cloud of blue lightning which enveloped them both. The young man began to fuck harder, deeper, faster. His eyes closed and he couldn't hold back any longer. With the sound of static charges cracking he unloaded his cold electric cum inside her.

As he released his cream inside her Kirsty exploded into a full body orgasm. Her screams filled the apartment as she climaxed over and over. The young glowing hunk thrust finally inside her young tight pussy. Her head was thrown back in complete ecstasy as a third, fourth, fifth and sixth orgasm pushed Kirsty to near unconsciousness. Then her body dropped from its heavenly position back to the bed.

With a slight bump Kirsty hit the bed. Her small tight body bounced a little and she sat up slightly, resting on her elbows, looking for the young lover, but he was nowhere to be seen. I hope he comes back soon, Kirsty thought and flopped back to her pillow completely spent and tingling all over.

Kirsty woke the next morning excited at the prospect of the girls' night out! She jumped up and hit the shower, washing away the cold blue cum which had leaked out overnight, smiling at the thought of where it had come from.

After the shower Kirsty called a few girls and the night was set. Val, Jess, Lucy, Laura, Evie, Jessica, Trish, Romana, Virginia and Katie. Oh my, this is going to be a wild night. The day dragged by slowly but soon it was time to get ready. Some of the girls had turned up already and Virginia and Katie were making out on the sofa. Such a sexy image, Kirsty thought as she went to her bathroom to shower. The thought stuck in her mind, fingers began to roam and thoughts of the two hot honeys in the lounge filled Kirsty with pure desire.

Soon her fingers were in deep forcing her to climax. She soon found herself being pushed against the cold marble tiles by an invisible force, her fingers soon replaced by a long hard cold thick cock. She knew the girls didn't know what was happening in the flat so she tried to muffle her moans.

"Oh god yes" went over and over in her mind. Kirsty lifted her legs as she was being fucked hard in the shower, her body seemingly hovering against the wall. Soon the familiar cold electric liquid filled her pussy and she was slowly let to the shower floor. Her legs weak as she got her balance, Kirsty wiped the water from her eyes in time to see the electric blue figure shimmer out into the bedroom; she smiled and finished her shower.

Kirsty wrapped herself in her robe and began to get ready, carefully putting her makeup on as not to rush and make a mess.

"I look hot." Hair next. Out came the straighteners. Brunette vamp here I come, she thought as her shoulder length bob echoed Cleopatra. Next were a black lace push up bra and French knickers. Oh this looks sexy, she thought, smiling at herself in the mirror. Next, was a short black pleated skirt and button up black short sleeved shirt, knee high black socks and wedge heels - also black. She checked out her ass in the mirror, adjusted her firm and perky 36c breasts and walked into the lounge.

Virginia and Katie turned and their eyes popped out and they both said, "Look at you you hot baby girl."

Kirsty smiled. "Thank you, ladies, are we ready?"

Lippy applied and clothes adjusted, they went out for the night, soon meeting up with the rest of the group.

They danced and drank the night away teasing and flirting with all the hotties in the clubs and each other. Some of the girls had hooked up and vanished to god knows where and who with. By the end of the night Kirsty was left with Jessica and Val. "Plenty of room at mine girls if you want to stop the night?" Val and Jessica agreed and they all went back to Kirsty's apartment.

Shower and PJ's on, they all settled in the lounge. A little tipsy from the alcohol the three girls began flirting and caressing. Soon they were wrapped in each others arms. Jessica was laid on her back on the sofa being kissed by Kirsty, Val had slipped off Jessica's PJ shorts and was lovingly pleasuring her. Licking and eating her deep and hard, her fingers pushing deep in her pussy as Kirsty received the gentle moans into her open mouth.

Kirsty's hand slipped into Jessica's PJ top and was caressing her erect pert nipples. Jessica was close to climax. Val was sucking and nibbling her clit hard as Kirsty took Jessica's nipples into her mouth sucking and nibbling. This was all too much as Jessica exploded into Val's open mouth. Wave after wave of hot sweet nectar poured into Val's mouth over her tongue and down her throat.

Val took Jessica's creamy nectar into her tummy over and over till Jessica collapsed onto the sofa filled with waves of ecstasy. Kirsty leaned over and kissed Val deeply as they shared Jessica's wetness. Jessica nodded off on the sofa and Kirsty led Val to her room where they slipped into bed.

Noises of lust and passion could be heard echoing through the apartment but Jessica was flat out asleep from pleasure and alcohol and was oblivious to the sensual goings on in the bedroom.

Jessica lay there half naked with her love juices still fresh from Val's attention, when her legs were pulled open slowly. As she slept she began to whimper as her wetness was being pleased slowly, the invisible force was slowly eating her pussy. Jessica, oblivious to the attention, was lost in dreams of lust and desire.

Her moans began to echo in the silence of night. Val awoke from her slumber and heard the noises coming from the lounge, and she slipped from between Kirsty's arms and slowly opened the door.

Val's eyes were forced wide by what she could see. Jessica was floating in mid-air above the sofa, seemingly asleep, moaning hard, her legs wide and a shimmering blue cloud around her, glowing blue liquid dripping from between her thighs. Val was amazed and couldn't speak or move, she was transfixed on the image in the lounge.

The shimmering blue cloud seemed to drift away and Jessica was left to rest on the sofa. Val closed the bedroom door and crawled back into bed. As she lay there thinking of what she had seen she began to slowly touch herself, her moans light and soft as not to wake Kirsty, her legs wide and fingers pushing deep she began to pick up pace imagining Jessica floating, moaning with desire.

Suddenly the bed moved and Val was shook into alertness. As she looked around she could not see anything and relaxed back, pushing her fingers deep. She closed her eyes and found her rhythm, moving ever closer to her solo climax. Her head thrust back and her eyes closed, she reached orgasm and it shook her hard. Panting and moaning loud she collapsed into the bed.

Kirsty turned and said, "Did you enjoy that as much as I did, baby?"

Val blushed and kissed Kirsty hard. "Oh, yes, I sure did."

“Kirsty?” Val asked shyly. “Something strange happened in the lounge to Jessica while she was asleep.”

Kirsty turned and said, “Really?” Pretending not to know.

“Yes it was so strange!”

Kirsty cut her off saying, “Are you sure it wasn’t a dream? We did drink an awful lot and we did have some hot sex?”

Val looked at Kirsty and thought, maybe it was?
