My mom is yelling at me to get out of the shower. I unwillingly get out as my fantasy ends. I throw on a sports bra and some booty shorts and proceed to leave the bathroom.

The next morning I decided it was time to make my fantasy a reality. I get what I want, and what I want is him. I plan on wearing a hot pink thong and a black bra. I put on leggings and shirt that stops in the middle of my ass. Straighten my hair and decide on regular bangs, for a sexy innocent look. I put little makeup on and head out the door.

I decided I would go and see him after first period. I knew that the next period he only had to go supervise the senior study hall. Time seemed to want to drag on as my young pussy got wetter and wetter. Finally, the bell rings and I practically sprint out of the room. My stomachs full of butterflies and my cheeks feel as if they were on fire. As I approach his room my heart beats faster in anticipation.

I get to his room and stand outside for a breather; I walk in and ask if he could wrap my ankles. I sit on a desk and wait for him to come over. He stands in front of me and slightly bends over to start wrapping my left ankle. I run my hand up his thigh and stop when I feel his cock. I squeeze a little and he tries to keep from moaning. I squeeze a little harder and he jumps a little. He stops what he's doing and looks at me.

I stare back and he goes back to finishing the ankle. I giggle and start to undo his pants. He grabs my hand and tells me to stop. He finishes my left ankle and starts on my right. It seemed like his pants were slowly starting to get tighter. I smiled and went back to squeezing him through his pants. This time he moaned and closed his eyes a little. I loved the reaction I was getting, so I undid his pants. He didn't try to stop me as I pulled put my hand down his boxers and rubbed his delicious cock. I realized the bell had rung already and I had to go or I'd be late to my next class. I zip his pants back up and walk away making sure he watched my hips sway.

I got to see him again third period. My mind kept wandering off and I couldn't focus on anything. With every passing minute, my pussy was throbbing more and more. I wanted to just rip my clothes off and fuck him. Finally, third period was here. I went to his class and sat in his chair as I waited for him to arrive. I was really early and no one was going to be there for awhile. He came in and closed the door, then he realized I was there and went to open it, but I stopped him with my smile. I got up to walk over to him. Before he could say anything, I put my hands on the sides of his face and kissed him.

He pulled away and looked at me with feign shock and tried to say something but I didn't let him. I grabbed his hand and had him sit in his chair. He looked at me in amazement and lust as I began to unzip his pants. He didn't object. I pulled out his cock and went wild. He was instantly hard when my small hands grabbed his 11 inches. I slowly licked the head, then I ran my tongue up and down the whole thing. I tickled his balls while I started to put his cock in my mouth. I bobbed up and down and enjoyed listening to his breathing change as he got closer. I was telling him to cum as the door knob started to jiggle.

I hid under his desk as he brought himself to be covered by the desk. I wanted to taste his cum so bad that I kept sucking him. Students were coming in but I didn't care, I had to taste it. I started sucking harder and would gently glide my teeth against it. This set him over the edge as he came in my waiting mouth. He was having trouble controlling himself from moaning, which only made me wetter. I sat under his desk for the whole period, and used this time to lick and suck his cock the whole time.

The period finally ended and he pulled me out from under his desk. He went and closed the door then pulled me in for a kiss. I put my arms around his neck and brought myself as close as I could to him. This has been what I've been waiting for. I needed him in me and I was gonna get it. I pulled away and look up into his eyes.

"I want you." I tell him as I try to control my breathing. He looks down at me and gives me a half smile.

"I want you too, but not now."

This isn't what I wanted to hear. I think about it for a couple minutes and decide to make a plan. "Well, why don't we go somewhere we can?" I say in a sweet little girl voice as I look up at him with my bright blue eyes. I can see him weighing the pros and cons of this.

"Ok, how about tomorrow after school you come home with me?"

"Yes!" I exclaim. He giggles and pulls me into him for an embrace. I give him a quick kiss and leave the room.

I wake up the next morning in a great mood. It's Friday, today's the day. I get ready and think about what today is going to bring.

I don't talk to him much the whole day because I don't want to just lose it right then and there. The end of the day finally comes and I run to his room and give him a hug. We leave the school and I get in his car. We talk about our day and then things like sports and the weather. The whole ride my pussy is aching for his cock. We finally get there and I follow him into his house. The second we get in there he throws my bag on the floor and starts kissing me. I kiss back and pull him towards me.

As we were kissing I start undoing his shirt. I pull it off and then start on his pants. I slide both his boxers and pants off and drop to my knees. I kiss his balls then up his cock to the head. I lick and suck and then stop right before he cums. He looks disappointed, but right now I need him to fuck me. I have him sit and stand in front of him and start to strip. I slowly lift my shirt over my head and then take my bra off and let them both fall to the floor. I then slowly slide my skinny jeans down. I slide my thong off too and throw both off to the side. I walk over to him and sit in front of his cock and start kissing him.

I lay down and tell him to fuck me. He puts his cock at the entrance of my shaven pussy and rubs it against my clit. My body's on fire as he finally pushes in me. I cry out as pleasure consumes me. He starts by slowly thrusting in and out. I love watching as his cock gets swallowed up by my tight little pussy. I put my hands on his ass and tell him to fuck me harder. He starts going faster and my breathing becomes erratic. I can feel his cock tensing as he's about to cum. I scream at him to cum in me and right on cue we came at the same time. He collapses on top of me and we cuddle up and fall asleep.

"Allison, get up! You have school in an hour!" My mom screams.
