I had the big problem with my massive dick, but this lady would soon find a remedy to it!

This story that came to pass in a certain city known as Tapalque, in the province of Buenos Aires , Argentina . The story includes myself and my female 65 yo, an adventurous partner. She also was my Italian neighbor at that time in that particular town.

I've always lived in my hometown next to Ofelia's house. She appeared to have a gorgeous body, about 1.90 tall, ever since I first met her. She also had wide hips and, of course, a tremendous, gorgeous ass, like globes, impressive, the size of a foot ball. She was married to Aurelio who died when she was pretty young. By this time I was probably 35, and I don't recall having seen her with another man, or boy friend since she became a widow.

I'm quite a mysterious guy, because there's something inexplicable in my penis, of a size too large. This was once a matter for curiosity among doctors when I was born and they registered that in my record. Doctors had to meet to discuss this rare case of such big penis in an 18yo boy. It was 35 cms. long, 6.5 wide when got to its maximum.

Well, it's the moment now to get to the point. As I was returning from the doctor's office -I had an appointment to find a remedy to this calamity or catastrophe- my mom stopped to talk with Mrs. Ofelia and had a long chat with her. I wasn't interested in the conversation so I continued my way home without my mother. As she got home too, I asked what would be the conversation topic up there, and she replied it was a typical conversation among women.

I lied down in my bed in the afternoon to rest, and after a while I got up and went out to run into my neighbor Ofelia who was cleaning the sidewalk. She got closed to me as if to begin a conversation. She then made a comment about something that she needed: I'd have to perform some duties for her at her home, so she invited me in. Once I stepped in, she proposed me to give her a hand at the ground floor. She wished to have it cleaned and to dispose of some trash but I could take home some stuff which she gave me to keep. My answer was to get down there, so did she. Nothing there would call my attention, for there was nothing strange in this place, but as she turned on the lights I could see better and I couldn't help noticing a king size bed, already assembled, but tried to ignore it.

She started a chat about making a deal: if I did her a favor I'd get money to buy my own cigarettes. I refused to, for I was her neighbor and I'd do it generously. Besides, my mother didn't agree if I charged for my services. But I wasn't aware what the deal was about: I had to show her my penis and she would pay me for this, she insisted over. My disorientation and puzzlement was big at this moment, I didn't get it and was confused, standing there in front of her splendid body. Flesh everywhere. She told me to fuck her so she asked me to lay on my back. She'd teach me how to fuck. I obeyed her immediately.

Despite her age, she moved quickly to get prepared and, in seconds, she began to align her pussy opening with my dick. I felt my dick having problems in sliding into her. It couldn't find the way through the beautiful hole but soon her love tunnel gave in to my massive cock and my dick poked completely inside her. After the old woman moved around her ass to accommodate better, there came a complete and successful entrance of my tool. Bingo!!

It's hard to figure out the woman's face, with her eyes twisted white. Her pleasure was so great that tears had begun to run down her cheeks with each time my dick went in and out grinding that hole. Perhaps she was feeling a tremendous stroke inside, for each time it plunged she screamed aloud like ever for a woman. Suddenly, I felt a pain in my testicles and noticed a liquid that had begun to spurt out. When she saw this, she made a comment: too much cum load, gallons, and taught me the first lesson: this all meant I was cumming. She stayed there soaked by the semen repeating over and over: "What a wonderful dick you have here, baby."

It didn't last too long before my massive dick began to raise again and she noticed this as well, but made this comment: "Things will change now. It's your turn to ride on top of me."

She was in her 4's and parted her vagina lips with her fingers. Grabbed the massive cock and I slowly tried to slide within her. She then said:

"You just plunge it with a single blow. I want you to tear me up. Split my ass, please."

But she told me to avoid any revolting or disgusting feeling at all. I shouldn't see this as something sickening, nasty and to get well prepared for my new job. I stood ok in preparation while she grabbed my dick towards the hole entrance. It was then when I pushed strongly enough as to plunge it to the bottom with only one drive. 90 percent was already inside her making her to scream loudly, impressive screams of pleasure. I was now in the position for enjoying better the big tits and began to bang her stronger. She said aloud:

"Please, tear me apart!!" Rip it through! I felt my massive dick wet and going fully inside her while she began to say: "Stop, stop,now!!"

I obeyed immediately. I saw as she spread wide her big asscheeks and asked me to suck the black hole. It looked like stupid to do this and didn't get the point until she said it was a big surprise for me: I began to suck the hole and I felt then the taste of shit and strange juices, unknown to me, while she was happy enjoying. No doubt this woman had everything prepared and said: "Now, put it inside me!!"

I grabbed my dick firmly and tried to poke it into that asshole, but whatever effort was useless: it didn't work for it simple couldn't go inside her while she handled this difficult situation with her fingers by keeping her asscheeks separated. It was then as she screamed aloud: "Now, baby, do it now!!"

The head went first. She was now screaming louder than the first time. I fucked her pussy, and she slumped exhausted to the bed, hooked by the massive dick. She looked like crawling on her four while screaming: "Go, go, go, don't stop, harder, come on! Go to the deep end!!"

I obeyed her and she began to bite, crunched her teeth on the pillow. All was a mess, insane, for she began to launch pedos, until my sensations got back to my balls, so I was about to cum but she insisted, begged me to hold it; she turned around and said: "Put your damndick between my tits and fuck them! Make me cum, fellow!"

My cum load flooded her everywhere and this bitch swallowed it all. We stayed there lying on the bed for a while, then I got home. She made me promise another session for her and my answer was quick: another opportunity would come along the way. I had to keep the secret and shouldn't say anything about this or I'd spoil it. This was the deal. I still don't know why she had to rest in bed for two days, while I began to jerk off like never before.

THE END
