This is another true story. It occurred shortly after Part 1. The names have been changed. After the episode with Sabrina, June and I were extremely excited. We could not keep the idea of another threesome out of our heads. We would make love to one another like it was the last time every time after the threesome. Some months later, June decided she wanted to do it again, and who was I to stop her? As I got my gear put away at work, preparing for the long weekend ahead, June sent me a text message. She would be waiting for me at the barracks when I was released from work. I was excited. June told me she made plans to have another threesome, and I was sure this was going to be the weekend. As soon as my supervisor released us, I hopped into my car and sped off to my building. There was June, dressed in a sun dress that barely covered her curves. She greeted me with a passionate kiss. I loaded our bags into the trunk and sped off on our way to our destination. As we got closer to where we were going, June was getting wet with excitement. She rubbed my growing bulge as she directed me through the rush hour traffic. As we sat in the stop-and-go traffic, she could no longer hold her excitement. She unzipped my pants, releasing my bulge to the open air. My cock sprang out and she met it with her warm, pouted lips. While in traffic, she bobbed up and down my shaft slowly. It took no time to release my excitement into her mouth. June rarely swallowed, but she was so excited, she couldn't help but gulp down my load. With us both satisfied for the moment, we made one last turn before finally stopping at a restaurant. June left me in the car in front of the restaurant as she went inside. I watched her through the glass front of the restaurant as she embraced a large-breasted waitress. I almost jumped from my seat when she palmed her ass during the embrace. They sat inside and spoke for a few. It was my guess that she was the third party. Moments later, June returned to the car. We followed another car from the restaurant to an apartment complex a few miles down the road. As we arrived to the entrance of the apartment, the large breasted woman exited the car I was following. June hopped out of my car and skipped toward the mysterious woman. The two women walked arm in arm into the apartment. I felt forgotten until the mysterious woman introduced herself. "Hey Drew, I'm Brittany by the way." We all made our way through the apartment and into Brittany's large bedroom. Brittany wanted to shower after her long day at work and sat us down to some television. As Brittany returned, she was wearing nothing except a bath robe. Brittany's robe did its best to keep her large breasts covered. She and June were about the same height, but Brittany lacked the round ass. She was a lot more gorgeous than Sabrina, and a lot less plain, carrying around those large and perky breasts. As she made her way across the room, she and June began to look at each other and laugh, a twist of embarrassment within the laugh. As we all sat on the bed, I wondered to myself why the embraces and laughter were the way they were. Brittany politely explained, "We used to be lovers. June was the only woman I had ever been with, and she took me to levels of ecstasy I had never known before her." It was at that point that the excitement in the room reached its peak. No one spoke as the two women leaned in to kiss each other. I sat back, knowing I would not be left out, watching these two beautiful women french-kiss. Their tongues flicked and twisted around the others'. I became aware of the growing bulge in my pants, and removed all my clothes except my boxers. I returned to the same seated position, gently rubbing on my shaft. June could see me rubbing as she kissed Brittany. They both began to lay down slowly into my lap. They both stopped kissing as Brittany caught sight of my hand rubbing on my cock through my boxers. She reached out, sliding my shaft through the slit in the boxers and gave the head a lick. She repeatedly licked my cock as if it was a melting ice cream cone. All at once, she wrapped her tongue around the head and sucked my helmet into her mouth without her hands. I groaned from the pleasure of watching her suck me into her mouth without the aid of her hands. This excited June as well, who made her way to Brittany's large breasts. She suckled them and slowly kissed further south. She reached her pussy's lips, wet with anticipation, and dove in. My hips pumped harder into Britt's face as I watched June lapping up all of her wetness. Like a thirsty animal, her tongue made no waste of the flowing juices from Britt's love hole. I watched June roll Brittany away from my cock and onto her back. June began to ride her face, using her tits as a handle to brace herself. I watched closely as she was licking both of June's holes from front to back and back again. My throbbing cock could take no more. I grabbed a condom and moved around to face June. I slid myself into Britt's super wet cunt and drove myself as deep as possible. June and I gazed into each other's eyes...locked in while our bodies were still pleasing and being pleased. We almost forgot Brittany was in the room as I kept ramming myself deeper and deeper into her pussy. She would try to moan, but was muffled by June's lips grinding on her face. June and I both came right then and there, every muscle in our bodies tensed and we both grunted. I filled my condom and Britt received a face full of June's cum. We both flopped to the side. Brittany looks at us flopped to one side. She was dissatisfied and wanted more of the throbbing cock she had earlier. She found it, softening from blowing the last load. She removed the condom and licked the head of my cock. Now wet with my own seed, she sucked the head only, trying to remove whatever seed was left. It brought my soldier to full salute in seconds. The old condom was replaced and Brittany climbed on top of me and slid herself onto my shaft, gasping from its girth as she did. She was stretched more than she had ever been and moaned loudly as she rode me. June was aroused by the sight of another woman moaning out of pleasure on her boyfriend's cock and straddled my face, facing Brittany. I could hear them kiss sloppily, as I licked June's lips at the same time that I pumped my hips into Britt. The noise was a sexual symphony. The sound of my cock ramming into her tight hole, as my balls and her ass cheeks slapped together...the slurping sounds I made on her pussy lips as both women moaned...the sloppy tongue-kiss dripping onto my belly. It was only a few moments later and... Brittany let out a loud moan. She was obviously coming. June gushed all over my face just as I felt her body tense, an obvious sign of her orgasm. She shuddered as her gyrations on my face slowed. I felt my balls tense as Brittany grabbed them, begging me to cum. I did without any further hesitation, filling my condom yet again with my wave after wave of cum. We all cuddled together in Britt's bed and started to fall asleep, as I nestled myself in between both beauties. The next morning, I hadn't even opened my eyes and I had a raging hard-on. I rolled to my left and tried to seduce June. She stopped me and complained that she was sore from last night's activities. I wasn't quite awake yet when I rolled onto my back and was surprised by a warm sensation on my cock. Britt heard that I was still wanting some and came to the rescue. She was licking off all the dried cum from earlier in the night. She then popped her lips from my helmet and rolled onto her back, holding her legs open to invite me inside of her. I did not hesitate. Still not quite awake, I dove inside of her without a condom. The sensation was so addicting, I dared not stop. My hips worked harder and drove my shaft deeper into her snatch until...until... I exploded inside Brittany, continuing to thrust my hips ever deeper and pump her full of my semen. I fell on top of Brittany, breathing heavily together while watching as June left the room....
