Gang banged at movie theater

My husband and I were curious about swinging. I have always wanted to go to an adult theater. I had heard about them, but we had never been so, one evening while heading home from dinner we passed by one and decided to check it out. We chose two seats near the front of the theater. Once settled in I began to notice several men playing with their cocks nearby and was really turned on. I whispered to my husband that I wanted to play with his cock without hesitation he pulled it and I began to stroke it, I whispered for him to unbutton my blouse (no bra!) and expose both of my breasts. He started playing with my nipples. After some time I noticed a very nice looking man had relocated and sat down a few seats over, I noticed he was watching us and stroking his cock. It was a bit longer than my husband's and something was telling me it was now or never. I motioned to him to set next to me and he immediately came over, I whispered to my husband that I wanted to play with this man, and he said go for it so, I reached over and started stroking his cock. I could not believe that I was actually touching a complete stranger's cock. I was amazed it was my first time seeing an uncircumcised cock. I pulled back his foreskin of his 8.5" and exposed the head. He wasted no time and began to play with one of my breasts while my husband played with the other one. My skirt was up pretty high and our new friend started caressing my leg, he then slowly moved up to my panties, which were dripping wet! He fingered me while I kept stroking his large cock. He began to moan from pleasure. I leaned over and started to suck his throbbing manhood. He suddenly exploded a large load of hot sperm nearly drowning me. I was not planning on him to shoot his load all over my face. I could tell that our new friend felt bad about blowing his load all over me because after a few min. he slid down on the floor in front of me and began to eat my pussy. I lifted my legs onto the seat back in front of us to make it easier. My husband gave me a long wet kiss, I know he had to taste the cum in my mouth, while he played with both of my breasts, and our new friend continued to eat my pussy. By now we had quite a few men watching this really turned me on! Another man moved to the seat directly next to us. All shyness was gone and I started stroking his cock. It wasn't quite as big, I had his cock in one hand, the husband in the other, two pairs of hands on my breasts and a hot mouth delivering a massive orgasm. All of this action caused the man next to me to start to cum and so I immediately leaned over and took his load in my mouth. The man between my legs leaned up and asked my husband if he could fuck me? I think my husband liked the thought of this well-endowed man pumping his manhood deep inside my pussy because he was very quick to respond yes. I admit I was up for the idea of having him hitting spots never explored before. He eased into to me and began to slowly pump his cockin and outAfter a few slow pumps he began thrusting into me harder than anyone ever had. The feeling was between pain and pleasure I can remember thinking this guy was going to puncture a lung. I reached for my husband only to find he was not next to me and I was surrounded by complete strangers. I could see my husband behind these men taking pictures with his cell phone. After what seemed like forever the pounding stopped and our new friend withdrew but, before I could gather myself another man stepped in and inserted a much smaller cock into me. I remember being thankful for smaller cocks and let him continue. I started feeling like I was being raped so I began to play on my rape fantasies while others lined up to fuck me.The night ended after midnight and seven (7) men having forced intercourse for a total of nine (9) fucking me and four (4) men cum in my mouth. I found outthe last seven men had paid my husband $100 each to have their way with me. We have not been to the movies since. lol
