This is the story of our first threeway. When we go on vacation we like to let our hair down.

Here is another adventure that Melly and I had while on vacation. It is the only threesome that we have ever had (together). I don't know why we haven't done it again, we just haven't. As always I would love to hear from anyone that would like to write. If you do write I promise that I always return e-mails, A Genny story.... Prudence I am Genny. It was the second winter that Melly and I lived together. We were looking to escape the Michigan cold, and Melly has a cousin Joe that works in Disney World Guest Relations. He had a very good job working with all the hotels down there. He and Melly are the same age and had always been close while they were growing up in Chicago. He had offered us a place to stay any time we wanted it so Melly called him and he said it would be no problem to get us a very nice room for the price of the cheapest room that Disney has. We went down there for 8 days. Joe put us up in The Grand Floridian Hotel right in Disney World. It is one of three premium hotels in the magic kingdom. He put us up in a beautiful three room suite. The only nicer room in the place is the one that Oprah stayed in when she was there. We went to all the touristy things and rode on all the rides we had heard of. Joe got us passes so we could come and go as we pleased. On about the third night Joe took us to Pleasure Island. It is a place just outside of the Magic Kingdom owned by Disney. They created an Island and it is full of shops and restaurants and different kinds of bars. There is a comedy club and a jazz club and a rock and roll club and a country music club etc. There is one that is like an English pub and that is where we went.

Our waitress was named Prudence. She was very young (19) and cute as a button. She kept flirting with Joe and telling us very dirty jokes. We laughed and she kept the drinks coming. While she was standing near us she noticed Melly and I holding hands and she said something about Joe being our fag hag. We were all giving Joe a bad time when she swung her leg over Joe's legs and sat on his lap facing him. She ground herself down on him and then slid her hand down between them. She did a little more hip swaying and then looked at him and said, "What's the matter, you don't like girls?" Joe was very embarrassed but the rest of us were laughing very hard. Prudence got up off Joe's lap and went over to Melly. With the same move she swung her leg over Melly's and sat on her lap too. Melly is a lot faster than her cousin and as Prudence sat down Melly had slid her hand in her lap and as Prudence settled on it, Melly grabbed her by the pussy. Prudence squealed and just rubbed against it harder. She said something about finally finding someone that knows what she is doing. It only lasted a minute and she got up and said that the manager would have a fit if he seen her giving out lap dances. We stayed there a couple of hours and Prudence was never far away. she asked what we were doing later, and we didn't have any plans so Melly asked what time she got off. She explained that everything closed down at midnight. Every night at midnight there is a big fireworks display over the island and everyone is out to watch it and then they close the island down. 15 minutes before midnight we were out in the crowd waiting for the fireworks. Melly was behind me with her arms around my waist. It was dark and the crowd was pushing in on us so it was not a big shock when I felt her hand slide up under my tee shirt. She pulled me back harder against her and rubbed her pussy against my butt. I stuck it out a little more than normal just to help the effect. She had her face right up close to my ear and she started whispering all the nasty things she wanted to do to me when we got back to the hotel. My nipples were getting stiff and I could feel my panties getting wet. When all the midway lights went down for the fireworks to begin she pushed her hand up under my tee further and was touching my tits. Her other hand went down over my shorts to cup my pussy. I parted my legs to give her more room and she took it. As the fireworks exploded over head, she was rubbing my pussy and pinching my nipples. If they had had more than just 10 minutes of fireworks I might of exploded with them. Just as the grand finally was starting, I turned in her arms and began kissing her. We were still kissing when the lights started to come back up. When we finally broke the kiss Joe and a few onlookers were checking us out. I blushed a little but hey, I was on vacation. Joe had a big silly grin on his face and just said "Wow." We started moving with the crowd towards the bridge that leads to the street. Joe excused himself and said he was going out threw the back way and was headed home. We kissed him good-bye and kept moving. When we got to the bridge Melly pointed to the side of the gate and there stood Prudence. When she seen us she got a big smile on her face and came over to us. We started chatting and she asked us were we were going. When we said "back to our hotel," there was a moment of silence and then Melly said, "It's the Grand Floridian, you want to come with us?" I wasn't sure what was going to happen but Prudence didn't even give it a thought. She smiled and said, "Absolutely. I know one of the bartenders there. We could have fun" Melly just gave her a look and said, "We were thinking more of fun in our room than in the bar." Prudence just giggled and said, "Ok with me." We crossed the bridge and found a cab. I went in first then Prudence and then Melly. We told the cabbie where to go and then Melly turned to me and said, "Gen, look what we have here, our very own Disney play toy".

Prudence was giggling "That's right, just call me Minnie Mouse."

Melly reached past Prudence and pulled me towards her, squashing Prudence between us. The girl turned her face to Melly and they kissed. I was surprised to feel a pang of jealousy deep in me. Melly kept pulling me in until my face was right there with hers. I leaned in just a little more and the three of us were kissing at the same time. We were kissing and touching and pulling at each other for the few minutes it took to get back to the hotel. When we rolled ourselves out of the cab we were laughing like school girls. We all held hands as we crossed the lobby and got in an elevator to go to our room. In the elevator Prudence pushed up against Melly and kissed her again. Once again I felt that little jealous twinge. It took me a second to realize that we were not moving so I reached out and hit the button for our floor. Once again Melly reached out and pulled me in against The girls back. I let my hands slide around her and started to touch her tits. She wiggled her little ass back against me so I slid one hand from her tiny boob down to the crotch of her shorts. I felt her moan into Melly's mouth just as the car stopped and the door started opening. It is a good thing that no one was standing there waiting to get on because we were a tangled mess. The door almost closed again before I reached out and caught it. I pulled them two apart and we headed down the hall to our room. Melly had the key to the room and when she opened it Prudence just stood in the doorway and gasp. "Holey shit, are you guys rich?" I said "No." That it was Joe that got us the room. She looked serious when she said, "Well tell him to marry me. I don't care if he is gay." We had one more laugh at Joe's expense and we explained that Joe was not gay that he just worked here. This might be a good time to describe Prudence. She was 19 years old and looked even younger. She was less than 5 foot and couldn't weigh more than 85 lbs. She had a punk look with white spiky hair and some piercings in her eye brow and nose that she only filled when she was not at work. She had a gymnasts body with a flat chest and young boy hips. She had a child like infectious smile and she laughed easy. After we gave her a quick tour of the suite she said that it had been a long day and asked if she could use our shower. Melly said yes of course and as Prudence was heading that way she asked if we would like to join her. I was moving in that direction but Melly said, "No. You go ahead and we will get ready out here." Prudence gave a little pout and shut the door. When we were alone Melly just laughed and said, "Isn't she something?" I asked, "What are we going to do with her?" "I don't know, treat her nice and see what happens, I guess. Let's get undressed." I pulled down my shorts and undies and then tossed them and my tee in the corner. I jumped on the bed to wait and to watch Melly get undressed. She pulled her top up over her head and shook out her hair. She undid the button on her shorts and slid them down her legs. I reached over and undid the back of her bra and as she bent over to slide her panties down I let my hand caress her butt and thighs. Melly sat on the edge of the bed and I scooted over behind her. I wrapped my right arm around her waist and kissed her on the back of her neck. I could smell her shampoo and the smoke from the bar in her hair. She leaned her head back against mine and said, "I love you." We heard the water turn off in the bathroom and Melly got up and turned off the big lights in the room. She sat again on the edge of the bed and we waited for our guest to come out. The door opened and the light kind of silhouetted the young girl. She looked even smaller naked. She had a little bit of a tan line but the bottom was more pronounced than the top, making me think she must sunbathe topless some where. Her breasts were the size of little half lemons. She had a small strip of black hair on her pussy, so she was no natural blond. For a few seconds she stood looking at us and we sat looking at her. Melly put out her hand and said, "Come over here little one." The pixie smiled and came over in front of Melly. She stood bouncing on her toes with a big smile on her face. Melly pulled her in towards her and they hugged. Prudence smiled at me and gave me a little kissing motion with her mouth. I slid over against Melly's back and brought my face up for a kiss. Her little tongue came out and I sucked it into my mouth. I could feel Melly's arms moving so I suspected she was feeling all of Prudence's body. After a minute I heard Prudence catch her breath and then moan as her body started to move in a little humping motion. We broke the kiss and she said, "Oh fuck that feels good." I peaked around Melly, her hands were at Prudence's pussy and at least one finger had found it's way inside. The girl had her eyes closed, she leaned back a little and was slowly bouncing up and down on her toes. When she opened her eyes she looked right at me. "Oh, fuck! Her finger is right in my pussy. Right in my fucking pussy. Oh, fuck." I let one arm slide back around Melly and I found her right breast. As I was kissing the back of her neck I held her tit and felt the weight of it and felt it giggle with the motion of her arms. Prudence moved into Melly, spreading her legs even more and straddling Melly's thighs. Now I could feel the girls small tits on the back of my hand that held Melly's full one.. I moved my hand around and took one of her nipples between two fingers and pinched slightly. She had started kissing Melly and I heard a small whimper come from her mouth. I pinched harder and felt her grinding down on Melly's hand. I could start to smell all our excitement. As Prudence started to hump harder against Melly's hand she pushed herself against us and we all started toppling back on the bed. I moved out of the way and all connections were broken as Melly fell and Prudence landed on top of her. Her body was so small and white compared to Melly's. My hand came down on her butt with a gentle slap. Her face was right at Melly's left nipple and she opened up and took it in like a baby to her mother. Melly's hand came up and started stroking her hair and cheek. I must of been staring because Melly gave me a nudge with her knee and when I looked at her face she smiled and said, "I still have this one for you." I moved over to the other side of the bed and lay down on Melly's side. I moved my face to her other nipple and joined Prudence in nursing. We were both making little sucking noises and I could hear Melly start to moan. My hand slid down her belly towards her sex but when I got there the space was taken by Prudence's hand. Her fingers were pushing in and out of Melly. I let my fingers mold around hers and I slid one of mine in along side her two. I slowed her pace a little and put a little more pressure up towards the top of her opening where I know she likes it best. Melly's hips started pushing up against the invaders and her moaning got louder. Her hands were tangled in both our hair and she was holding us hard against her breasts. She began her orgasm mantra with, "Oh fuck. Oh fuck. My nasty girls. two nasty little slut girls. Oh Fuck!" She kept getting louder and her hips were humping up like they had a will of their own. She came with a crash. Her back arched up and her fingers were almost pulling my hair out by the roots. She let out a squeal, convulsed for a few seconds and collapsed on the bed. I felt Prudence's hand push back in for round two but I held it fast and pulled it out slowly. I know that Melly needs a little soft time right after she cums that hard. I left her tit and slid down her body kissing everything I came across. I could smell her happy pussy and I breathed it in deep. When I got to my target I gently kissed her lips and then brushed my cheek against her. I was still holding Prudence's hand so I took her fingers and mine and slipped them in my mouth to clean. All was quiet for a minute than I felt Prudence moving. She pulled herself up and was half laying on Melly as they kissed. Her leg came across and bumped me in the nose and she straddled Melly. I moved out of the way until she was settled and then pushed my way back in between both their legs. It was a wonderful view. Since Prudence was so short she couldn't kiss Melly and rub her pussy against Melly's at the same time. Hers was a few inches above Melly's resting just below Melly's belly button. She was straddling Melly's body and her little white bottom was spread and sitting up high. I moved back to Melly's pussy and gave her a nice kiss. I gently licked her lips and savored the taste of my lover. As I pressed in further my forehead pressed against Prudence's little pussy. I was in pussy heaven. I felt Prudence press back against me and rub her wet slit against my head. I raised up from Melly and gave Prudence a lick. Her pussy was so small that it was hard to get at it from that angle. I pushed in but it was hard to reach with my tongue. As I pressed, my nose was finding it's way between her little cheeks. I brought my hands up and parted her bottom to get a better look. She was pink everywhere. Her clean little pucker looked very kiss able. I moved up just a bit and licked across it. I heard her gasp a little in Melly's mouth. I licked again and then pointed my tongue and pushed it against her tight little ring. They must of broken the kiss because I heard her say, "Oh my god, she is licking my ass hole. She is licking my fucking ass hole." (it turned out that no one had ever done that to her before) She wiggled it back at me and I pushed in a little further. I felt Melly's hands come down her back and she grabbed the girls cheeks and held them apart even more. Now she was obscenely open and I dove right in. I licked across it a couple of times then pushed my tongue past her ring and into her ass. I could feel the heat inside her. She started humping back against me and I pushed in until my face was flat against her crack and my tongue was as far up her butt as it could go. I slid a free hand between her and Melly and started to finger her very wet pussy. I played in her juice for a second getting my fingers very slippery. I slid one finger into her and was surprised at how tight and hot it felt in there. As I ate her ass I started a rhythm with my finger in and out. I could feel my tongue against my finger with only her thin membrane between the two. When she started to cum, Melly held her ass down so she wouldn't throw me off. Eventually we both felt her shudder threw her orgasm and then collapse in a wet sweaty heap on Melly's chest. We all rested again before the sex continued. Eventually we all had our turn. They put me in the middle and as Melly whispered wonderfully filthy things in my ear, our little sprite did her best between my legs. At one point I had Prudence sitting on my face and Melly was licking me threw a wonderful orgasm. It was a long and event full night. In the morning we all showered together and then as Melly watched Prudence and I had a farewell 69. So that is our three-way story. We have never repeated it, but we did meet two women from Toronto, last year while we were in Key-West. If our schedule would of been a little better I think we might of hooked up with them. There must just be something about vacations that make us both very horny and a little crazy. Any one with comments I am at I promise to always write back. Genny
