I give and they take it's always the same I'm there when they need me but my needs are unaddressed Will I ever find the one thing that satisfies this desire? Every time I think I have found it I am just lead in circles again Nothing is ever as it seems Companionship in this fantasy world is an illusion An oasis that is only a mirage The thirst gets stronger and continues Fear is the enemy Too much caution inhibits passion Confines the free spirit Leaves you empty and cold My honesty is their haven My compassion their comfort I am left depleted and alone I give and they take it's always the same
