We're Lovers

Aroused to transcend

Hedonistic goals without end

Voracious hearts are primed to feed

Decadent compulsions, our primal need

Lustfull urges aflutter and stroke

Impassioned cravings wickedly provoke

Our tepid desires strike nirvana's downbeat

While amorous throbs red-blooded flamed heat

We're passionately fueled, our sexual fervors aglow

With unabashed urges, climatic embers flow

An orgasmic solution, our presence of mind

Our carnal madness is sexually refined
