Dreamlover My eyes were closed my heartbeat slowed down I rolled onto my belly and I sank into a deep sleep. A slight movement of the mattress got through to my sleepy brain but not sufficient for me to awaken. A feathery caress on my inner thighs a kiss on my knee hollows a lick on my buttocks. A hand sought its way from my feet to my thighs I moved in my sleep and spread my legs a bit. A gentle touch on my pussy lips a kiss on my ass two fingers spread my lips a thumb finds my clit. I sighed into my pillow my lower body moved upwards as if it moved beyond my control giving access to my hungry pussy. Suddenly my alarm goes off 6 o'clock in the morning, time to get up my dream is shredded by the reality of everyday life.
