A simple chat Your perfect smile that makes me float Everything about you is a miracle I thank the power that you're in my life Only sighing when I think your name You touch my heart from miles away We are connected somehow Every word that comes from you is tattooed in me Reaching for me Nothing can be wrong here Stay with me however you can Please stay Our late nights Ealry mornig chats Everything we do together You invade my thoughts Run my dreams This is new I feel safe Thank you for this It leaves me at peace I love this I love you
