His Lips.... His lips are thick, full, and inviting His lips trace the outline of my face His lips lightly and sensually kiss each eyelid His lips drag ever so slowly down my cheek His lips open and I feel his hot breath His lips pass over my neck causing me to quiver His lips release his tongue to circle around my breasts His lips pucker and I feel a slow suckle on my nipple His lips pull away from me to see me arch my back and moan for him His lips leave my mind a blur but my body in heat His lips brush over my pussy His lips release his tongue to lick my pussy from base to tip His lips are coated with my pussy juice down to his chin His lips soaked in my juice press up against my full soft pink lips His lips lick my lips while his eyes are locked on mine His lips open and our tongues meet for a little dirty dancing His lips suckle on my lip and only release after when he bites me His lips with my lips ignites such passion and desire.
