How can I say I love you Side by side Life passing by Lost in the imagination of the day How can I say I love you So wonderful So beautiful Eyes sparkling under the sun's ray You are my one You are my everything Today, tomorrow You make my spirit sing How can I say I love you Hands touching your skin Lips joining Lost in your embrace How can I say I love you Grasping you to me Licking you slow Eyes closed, hearts race You are my one You are my everything Today, tomorrow You make my spirit sing How can I say I love you Your body under mine Buried deep inside Making one out of two How can I say I love you By filling you with love Flesh to flesh I show Just how much I love you You are my one You are my everything Today, tomorrow You make my spirit sing
