The black in her heart destroys his love, he can't look back. Remembers the passion, but it has burned out like a slowly dying star. . Her regret is distorted into hatred and reckoning. He longs for the devotion once shared. Her reprisal is swift as his shedding of her darkness is lingering, like a terminal disease. Ultimately, the pain sheds and the sorrow he feels for her escapes him. He moves on to begin another life, a life free of the jealousy.
