For we've grown apart I guess that's the test of time I reminisce over the days
From when I was yours and you were mine
Though it's been a while Since I've seen your face
The memories remain From when we made our hearts race
We made lofty promises Many of which we did not keep
We made plenty of mistakes The consequences were ours to reap
Now that we've grown apart And our relationship ran its course
Gone are the days When it seemed like we were an inseparable force
It's now time to let go Let the past simply be
We had a lot of fun, babe The memories mean a lot to me
We made a lot of love During which time flew by so fast
Now it's all over We simply weren't meant to last
