To be lost and looking for Him hurts like no other Longing to feel His leather around my wrists To be lost and praying for Him everyday Needing to feel His shackles around my ankles His strong hands molding the clay Someday hoping to find my way Will I feel His strength, His love? Like a lost lamb in the woods My love cold like the morning frost Waiting to feel the heat of His touch Will He ever know my deepest desire? Every night I lay in bed praying to be worthy Needing to be enough I close my eyes bow my head Hoping with all my heart that someday He will find me To no longer be lost and looking for Him Living only to please Him Hearing Him say, "MINE" when he looks at me Being claimed in body, heart, mind and soul To finally be.....found
