

Meant to be

A short poem I wrote.

My heartbeat matches yours
When I breathe it's like I'm breathing the same breath as you
You gently caress my body
Making me burn for you
When your lips touch mine
It's like a fire burning deep inside of me
I think only of when we
Will be as one again
When we are together
We touch heaven each and every time we touch
When you whisper to me
Your voice touches the very core of my soul
When we kiss it's a promise of what is to come
I know that we were meant to be
Til the end of time my heart is yours
