My heart smiles The trees sing our song A melody Sweet, but full of meaning My joy Is overflowing So proud, my love has finally come Who knows what the future holds My first love One whom I'll never forget Your sweet embraces Your loving gestures Everything about you makes me tingle Without you I'm lost In the sea of sadness But all that's gone The minute you touch me I find my way again To your heart Your spirit For you are my one true love That will last a lifetime
