I fulfilled a fantasy of mine this afternoon... Once again, I find it hard to concentrate at work Phone calls to return Deadlines looming Proposals pending All temporarily parked as my mind turns to you Butterflies flutter violently in my belly Past phone conversations flood my memory Erotic sounds etched in my mind Your voice Your words Your excitement Your climax My body shivers at the thought I close my eyes and shake myself back to reality But it's no use I happily give in to the sensations If only for a moment more It is late afternoon Office is nearly empty I move across the room and close my office door Making sure to lock it behind me Settling back in my chair I return to thoughts of you Our chats Your videos Excitement washes over me My heart races My body begins to ache I grind my hips into the chair Desperate to find a release My hands reach for my breasts Fingers slipping inside my blouse Beneath my black lace bra Capturing a nipple and holding it hostage Already hard and throbbing I gently hike my skirt up Spread my legs slightly And slip my fingers beneath my panties I can't believe I'm doing this... But I can't help myself I run my fingers through the folds of my pussy Now slick with my sweet juices I take my clit between two fingers and pinch The intensity both shocks and excites me Fingers begin to penetrate Keeping rhythm to the playlist of images and sounds of you Of us God, you drive me fucking crazy! My screams are forced into silence But, again, it doesn't matter At least not for this moment I close my eyes My heart quickens I throw back my head And welcome the slow, intense release of my orgasm I sit for a moment Catch my breath Open my eyes again And pull myself back together I can't believe I did that... And with a smile on my face I return to work
