Mythic Mons (Revised)

With her close cropped sultry delta
Dark before my eyes so reverent,
I saw within the folds a flash of fate,
An infinite, eternal Gate:
A humid, hot Significant.

A Mediterranean mount
Of smoldering pungent readiness,
A tender, tended dense triangle
Shielding lips lusciously so full
They were due the praise we pay to Venus.

Thus, lingually lingering memories

Of Woman Flesh mature and ripe

And of Passion tongued and sipped

From the living mythic hieroglyph

Of an Aphroditic archetype!
