Just a quick and short little rhyme I wrote

My love for you is pure and true any other answer will not do. For I would do anything for you and I hope you say the same thing too. You might not know it but I hope you do I would do anything for you. I hold you close, I hold you dear and I am always wishing you were near. With my love for you, you have no fear for you I would take on a spear For it is you that I hold so dear. You make me shake, you are my drug all I wish from you is at least one more hug, for my heartstrings you do tug 'cause you are my drug, please just one more hug?
