Open your eyes ... To see the one who longs for you. Open your eyes ... To catch the morning's rays of love. Open your eyes ... To see who reaches for you. Open your eyes ... To let your soul's light shine through. Open your eyes ... That were sealed gently with a kiss. Open your eyes ... To let me behold your dreams within. Open your eyes ... To the passion you've created within me. Open your eyes ... To the love that surrounds you. Open your eyes ... And let me see the burn. Open your eyes ... As we slowly become one. Open your eyes ... To share your building passion. Open your eyes ... And let me see your molten core. Open your eyes ... To see your sweet torture on my face. Open your eyes ... As we soar higher in love's embrace. Open your eyes ... To show me your ascension to that peak. Open your eyes ... To show me your flaming passion within. Open your eyes ... As you tightly embrace that which is lodged deeply within you. Open your eyes ... While feeling my release within you. Open your eyes ... For I want to see you cum.
