For the woman I love

I want to please every part of your body Do things I have never done solely for your pleasure I will fulfill your desires and needs Just thinking about it has my mouth watering I am thirsty for your love Let me drink from your most private place I can't wait to enjoy the sweet taste My touch will send shivers down your spine Your love is now mine Deep kisses on the lips Trailing down to your hips Then I kiss your other lips and take a lick Teasing you circling my tongue around your clit Suck it into my mouth, moving my tongue up and down Now I got you screaming loud Your hands are gripping the covers You realize that I'm your perfect lover I slip two fingers into your wetness Feeling your walls tight around them In moments your orgasm hits But we're not even close to being done, we have the whole night to finish this
