It's early and daylight hasn't arrived just yet Laying next to you I can feel your body against mine See your breath rise and fall Sleeping peacefully Without a word, I slip under the covers And settle between your legs I plant soft butterfly kisses along your one thigh, Then the other Slowly making my way up towards that beautiful cock of yours Just waiting to be taken again I gently nibble your inner thigh and look up to find you finally stirred awake Realizing what I'm up to A little smile crosses your lips Your cock twitches with anticipation And I can see it starting to swell I nuzzle my face against your beautiful balls The musky scent is intoxicating Gently, I take one ball into my mouth, Then the other Sucking them, Swirling my tongue around them I massage your shaft with my free hand And see a tiny pearl of precum pool at the tip I let your balls drop from my mouth as I move up to take your hard cock in my mouth Needing to lick and suck, Just the way you like it Look at me when I suck your cock... I want you to watch me My mouth begins to water I wrap my hot mouth around your engorged tip Moving my head up and down, Sliding my lips and tongue over your shaft Swirling my tongue in circles around the head Mmm..you taste so good You grab a fistful of my hair and start to control my rhythm Controlling how deep, How fast I keep my lips tight around your cock And move my free hand between my legs I need to touch myself I can't help myself I can feel your cock get harder I can taste the salty precum again as it floods my mouth You can't help yourself and thrust upwards into my mouth While your hands push my head down onto you Needing to do deeper Making me gag at first But you just hold me there until get used to it I can take it You know I can take it You pull out slightly Then slam your cock to the back of my throat Over and over But that's not enough Not for either of us I lift my leg and straddle your thigh Can you feel how wet my pussy is? I slowly slither up your body leaving behind a trail of my pussy juice on your thigh Slowly making my way to your mouth I can feel your cock twitch as I position myself, Straddling your hips now You thrust your hips upwards until the tip of your cock kisses my wet folds I lower myself onto your cock, Slowly at first, Until your cock disappears inside my pussy Rocking back and forth, I slam down on your cock as hard as I can I can't seem to get enough Your hands on my breasts then my hips, Guiding me, Keeping rhythm with me Don't stop fucking me! I lean back up and reach behind, My hand caressing your balls I roll them between my fingers, Playing with them, Gently I lean forward again and devour your mouth Deep kisses Hungry kisses Our tongues entwined I pull away to catch my breath And then bite your lower lip Don't you dare stop fucking me I want you to cum inside of me I want to feel your hot cum inside me Don't you fucking dare stop! Looking into your eyes I rock back down onto your cock And I feel your orgasm rock through your body Your hot cum squirting deep inside me Filling me up I plant another kiss on your lips And reluctantly ease myself off of you Your cum slowly oozes out of my pussy And drips down my thighs I take your semi-hard cock in my mouth one last time Squeezing every last drop of cum left to suck Your cock twitches violently at the sensation I finally settle into your arms Where we fall back to sleep locked in a naked embrace
