Love remembered

Special times we use to share, Nothing else in life could compare. Each day together we use to treasure, How we brought each other so much pleasure. As the days went by and time seemed to pass, Our special times seemed to pass. Our talks, they were hours long, Till one day they seemed to be gone. How I long and miss our talks, Along with our long walks. I remember the times we couldn't say goodbye, And now it's all we do to say hi. How the days I wish could rewind, And make them like the memories in my mind.
