The true story of my night with a friend's auntie

My friend's auntie once told me that she fantasized about fucking a younger guy. Her nephew and I were 21, she was 39. She told me this one evening at my friend's birthday party, whilst looking at me seductively. She was incredibly beautiful, 5'3, blonde, shoulder length hair, small pert boobs, a stunning smile, deep blue eyes and a body most 20 year old girls dream of having. Wearing a low cut black dress, showing plenty of leg she looked every inch of the beautiful older woman I had been dreaming and fantasising of. I smiled at her knowing her husband was away on business and said "Why fantasise when you can have the real thing?" She just smiled at me finished her drink stood up and whispered "Meet me at my house in 20 minutes" with that she turned and left me sitting at the bar stunned. As she got to the bar door she turned and gave me the dirtiest look I have ever seen. I had to have her tonight. I finished my drink, made my excuses - something about having a headache - and left. Her house was 10 minutes walk from the bar and by the time I got to her door I was already semi hard. I raised my hand to knock on the door, as I did it swung open and there she was in the little black dress that clung to her petite tight little frame so perfectly. The look in her eyes made my cock harden. Without a word she pulled me through the door slamming it shut behind us, then she took my hand and led me to her bedroom. She ripped off my shirt. In seconds I felt myself harden fully as she ran her hands and tongue over my chest pushing me to the bed. She climbed on top of me while my hands made their way to her pert ass. I squeezed it softly; she smiled at me and kissed me. She peeled the little black dress off her body. Every inch of her was as beautiful as I had imagined. She had no bra on, her long nipples were hard and erect and her thong was damp. She crawled right on top of me and allowed me to suck on her long nipples. As I did so her hands unbuckled my trousers and revealed my cock. She let out a gasp as it sprung free and gave me that dirty look again then began sucking my swollen head. I took her head in my hands and pushed as much of my length down her throat as I could. I lay back as she began to lick up and down my shaft, her tongue swirling expertly around my throbbing cock. Then I pulled her up so that I could suck on those perfect nipples again, as I did so she pulled her thong aside and guided my rock hard cock inside her soaking pussy. She arched her back as I entered her and was moaning softly as she worked my length inside her and I placed my hands on her waist. I began to raise and lower her gently on my cock, when she grabbed my hands and pinned them to the bed. She rode my cock like a sex starved whore, harder and faster than I had ever fucked before. She looked deep into my eyes as she slammed herself onto me over and over, harder and harder each time. The look of lust in her eyes was incredible. I thrust myself inside her as she rode with her legs wrapped around me. All at once she fell onto my chest moaning loudly and I could feel her pussy tighten around my cock as she came hard. I took hold of her ass and began to slam her on my cock hard and fast with my full length inside of her tinny body. I bit her neck and said "I'm going to cum." She pulled herself off my body, sweat dripping from both of us as she straddled my chest wrapping both her hands around my cock. She began to work my shaft as I stared into her dripping pussy. Her mouth closed around the head of my swollen cock as I exploded into her mouth filling her with 4 or 5 big shots of cum. She swallowed and climbed off and stood staring at me, lying naked covered in sweat and pussy juices. Some of my cum had run down her chin and was dribbling down her perfect tits. "Leave your phone number on the side stand and leave" she said. Those were the first words she had said to me since leaving the bar. Needless to say I did as I was told.
