Alpha Delta Pi Sorority House By Otkfme@comcast.net When I was attending college, I liked to pull practical jokes on people. I was able to handle spiders, ants, and other insects with very few problems. When I attended my classes, I liked to drop the ants and spiders on a person's clothes or on their desk. Usually after a few minutes, the ants and spiders would make the person jump out of their desk and disturb the class. It was even more fun when I did it to the girls that were in class. They would usually scream, and make a real big deal about finding the ants and spiders. I thought that no one knew that I was the person who was putting the ants and spiders on other students. This is what happened to me on a Saturday. Every Saturday morning, I would put on a t-shirt and shorts, and then jog around the campus. I was able to stay in shape this way. So on one Saturday morning when I was jogging, I noticed some girls jogging along with me. I thought this was really nice, since on most Saturdays, no one would jog with me. After a few minutes, the girls got real close to me and boxed me in. "Please follow us," one of the girls said. "Don't try to break away, or we will use force to make you follow us." I didn't want to cause an incident, so I followed their lead. When we got to the Alpha Delta Pi sorority house, the girls lead me inside. Now I knew I was in trouble. Earlier in the year, I had startled Elizabeth, the president of the sorority, with a snake. After about a week, she had me tracked down, and I was spanked by the girls of the sorority house. I was lead into a large room next to the kitchen. There was a large white board for writing messages on, a table with various spanking implements, and a wooden stock. Standing next to the stocks was Elizabeth. "Thank you for bringing Clyde to me to be punished." Elizabeth said. "Please stay here until I have Clyde completely under my control." Then she turned to me and said, "I thought you learned your lesson when we spanked you after the snake incident, but apparently, it didn't have much affect on you. After this punishment, you probably will never bother students with your ants and spiders, again. Please take off your t-shirt, and then come over here so that I can put you in the stocks." Next, she raised the stocks so that I could put in my head and wrists. I had learned by my previous spanking by Elizabeth that I had better follow her orders, so I quickly took off my shirt and walked over to the stocks. "Hurry up and place your wrists and head into the stocks, unless you want help from my sorority sisters." Elizabeth said. I didn't want to be forced into the stocks, so I humbly place myself into the stocks. Elizabeth quickly closed the stocks, so now my head and wrists were trapped in position. The stocks weren't very tall, so I was in a bent over position. I was now no longer to see what was happening behind me. Then Elizabeth and the other girls proceeded to completely strip me. Off went my running shorts, my jock strap, and my shoes and socks. I felt so embarrassed like this, being completely naked in front of the girls. Next, they spread apart my legs, and secured them with a spreader bar. Now I was very aware that my balls and penis were dangling between my legs and also completely exposed. Then Elizabeth said, "I know a way to keep you aroused during your ordeal." She then put her hands underneath her skirt and removed her panties. She placed her panties on my head with the crotch of her panties over my nose. I could now smell Elizabeth's sweet female scent, and I felt my penis develop a large erection. I felt several pairs of hands on my penis and balls as I heard one of the girls say, "Look at his nice erection. He sure response well to your panties." "Let's warm up his naughty ass before the others find him like this." Elizabeth said. "Grab a paddle and let's spank him at the same time." Being in the stock, I was unable to see what was going on behind me, but all at once I felt the sting of several paddles on my naughty naked bottom. Now and then, I also felt a riding crop being used to hit my exposed penis and balls. I felt completely humiliated, felt the pain of the paddles, but also felt the pleasure from the women tickling me and touching my penis and balls. "His poor ass is pink already. Let's stop spanking him for now so that our other sorority sisters can spank and tease him." Elizabeth said. Then she wrote this on the whiteboard in front of me. "This is Clyde. He has been causing havoc with our other sorority sisters by putting spiders and ants on them. Feel free to spank and tease him. Our main spanking ceremony will take place at 11:30 AM in the main living room." Elizabeth and the girls then went into the kitchen to eat breakfast. I tried to wiggle out of the stocks, but I was held tightly in place. As the sorority girls slowly woke up and went to breakfast, they would walk past me and make comments on my situation. Some would pick up a paddle and give my poor unprotected bottom a short spanking. Others would tease me about my exposed erection, and tickle my body under my arms and on my penis and balls. I felt so helpless like this. After what seemed like many hours, Elizabeth appeared before me and said, "It's time for your ceremonial spanking in front of the whole sorority. Once I release you from the stocks, please follow me into the main living area." She released me from the stocks and still left her panties on my head. "What about your panties?" I asked. "They look good on you like that. Now follow me." Once we entered the main living area, I noticed that all of the women had formed a large circle. Also, each woman had a sorority paddle in her hands. In the middle of the circle was a large wooden chair. Elizabeth dragged me into the middle of the circle, and she sat down on the chair. Two of the women came up to me and forced me to kneel down in front of her. "This is Clyde, who many of you have met before. He is the same naughty boy who was responsible for the snake several months ago. This time he has been putting spiders and ants down the blouses of our sorority sisters. Now he is going to be punished for doing that. I will first take Clyde over my knee for a spanking, and once I have completed spanking him, he will stand up, and the next sorority sister can sit down here and spank him. Once everyone who wants to has spanked Clyde, then we will have him crawl through our paddle lines." All of the women cheered and made crude remarks to me. "Form a line in back of my chair for those who would enjoy spanking

Clyde. And now we will start Clyde's punishment. Clyde, please bend over my knees for your spanking." I felt so humiliated to be spanked like this in front of all of those women. When Elizabeth finished spanking me, I had to stand up while the next woman sat down. Elizabeth stood next to me, to make sure I bent over each woman's lap for a spanking. Sometimes I would be further humiliated as the women would check out my erect penis and balls. By the time all of the women had spanked me, my ass was on fire. "Now form your spanking lines and grab your paddles. Clyde will now crawl on his hands and knees as you spank him." Then Elizabeth forced me to my knees and I had to crawl between the women. There was much laughter in the room as my spanking went on and on. Once I had crawled back to the wooden chair, Elizabeth said, "Clyde, stand up and put your hands on your head so that we can examine your naughty naked ass." I next felt many hands on my ass. The women made many comments on how red and hot my ass was. "Keep your hands on your head and face the sorority girls." Elizabeth told me. I felt so humiliated. "Hand me Clyde's clothes." Elizabeth said. "Last time we kept your underwear after your spanking, but that this time we will keep your shirt and jock strap. If we catch you doing something naughty again, you will leave here naked after your spanking. So you can get dressed now and then you will be free to leave." I put on my shoes, socks, and running shorts; and quickly left the sorority house. I guess I need to change my behavior.
